

DEBBIE SCHWANKE/Colby Community College

The Colby Community College men's cross-country team made a great season debut on Friday.

Trojan men dominate in near-perfect debut

The Colby Community College men's cross country program opened their season in a big way on Friday evening at the meet held on the Colby campus.

The Trojan men won the Colby Trojan Invitational over Fort Hays State University, Dodge City Community College and Barton Community College with a perfect score of 15 points.

In order to obtain a perfect score, the Trojans needed their first five runners to pass the finish line ahead of all runners from other colleges.

The Trojans went on to place six runners ahead of all other competitors.

"Perfect scores don't come around very often," coach James Ortiz said. "They are very difficult to accomplish."

Freshman Chris Speaks led the way for Colby and covered the three-mile course in 15 minutes and 14 seconds.

He was followed by teammates Colin Grueber (15:40), Josh Quiroga (15:46), Gabe Johnson (15:49), Adrian Guevara (15:50) and Gunnar Hays (15:53), who finished second through sixth place.

Logan Garrett of Fort Hays State University was the first non-Colby finisher in seventh place.

"Don't let the perfect score fool you. This was not a perfect day for us," Ortiz concluded. "We've got a lot of growing to do and need to get better before November."

Final team standings were Colby, 15; Fort Hays State, 54; Dodge City, 87; and Barton, 99

Last season the Trojans won the college's first ever Region VI Championship and finished fourth at the National Junior College Athletic Association cross country championships.
