

Eagles win last contest

The Colby Middle School eighth graders closed their football in fine style with a 16-12 home triumph over St. Francis Thursday afternoon.

Colby broke free from a 6-6 halftime tie and held off the determined Indians.

Eighth-grade team members are Larry Radovich, Zach Hart, Keelan Sanguinetti, Shevin Martin, Jack Albers, Lucas Taylor, Landon Skolout, Tray Brown, Sean Rall, Michael Scott, Jaden Reeh, Lander Niblock, Alec Retzlaff, Brock Horinek, Braedon Voger, Hunter Dodson, Kaiser Lopez, Ben Lara-Valdez and Parker Hamel.

Monday Night football was fun at Dennen Field as Shevin Martin (34) and the Colby Middle School eighth graders ran away from St. Francis.

Colby makes plays

Some other Colby Eagle highlights from Friday's 22-12 loss at Concordia not mentioned on Monday:

After losing an early fumble near its own 25-yard line, Colby defense makes its first big stand by forcing Concordia's first turnover. The Eagles recover on their 32 and take that momentum on a 68-yard touchdown drive for an early 6-0 lead.

Sophomore Ben Matchell returns from missing two games with an injury. He promptly makes an impact, stopping some early running plays as the Panthers fumble three times during that first quarter.

Sophomore Austin Hart blasts through to deliver a tackle for us. Hart and other Eagles like freshman Ethan Jay are leading an improved Colby defensive line.

Besides strong rushing and linebacking play, senior Andrew Taylor has become a more powerful punter throughout this season. Another long kick pins the Panthers inside their own 20.

Sophomore Brady Holzmeister makes a touchdown-saving tackle that helps Colby keep its halftime lead of 12-7.

Concordia fumbles on first play after halftime, and junior Zachary Young makes another Eagle recovery.

The Eagles invite Clay Center for a Friday 7 p.m. home game.

Trojans clinch share of Jayhawk title

Big match at Community Building on Thursday

and the Jayhawk Conference champions.

The Trojans (23-7 overall, 12-1 league) just need a win over Barton Community College Thursday night to achieve all these goals.

"If we beat Barton, we will host the regional tournament (Nov. 8-9). Four teams with the winner going to nationals," coach Cary Jones said. "But Barton will have plenty of incentive, too. If they will, they'll be home for their regional play-in match."

Barton will bring a 7-6 league record into Thursday (6:30 p.m.).

It will also be "Sophomore Night" for a Colby Trojans team that has now won seven consecutive matches.

The Trojans extended their streak by sweeping Garden City Community College 25-15, 25-17, 25-18 Tuesday night in Garden City. They also clinched a share of the Jayhawk league title.

"Our players went out and knew what had to be done, and they terminated," Jones said. "We're playing our best volleyball of the season, and that's what you want to be doing right now."

Official stats from the match were not available Wednesday.

However, both Jones and The Garden City Telegram mentioned Colby soph Lorena Rosario's five ace serves as a key factor.

"Velocity from the service line was a little bit more than we expected," Garden coach Harvey Sanders said.

am proud of the girls."

The first game was against the hometown Dighton Lady Hornets.

The Lady Hornets kept them hopping, but the Lady Bulldogs won in two sets 25-16 and 25-20.

The girls' second match was against the Lady Thunderhawks from Wheatland/Grinnell. The Lady 'Hawks are among the top ranked teams in the state and are always a challenging contender, but the Lady 'Dogs handled them easily 25-16, 25-18.

The final game of the night was against the Trego Lady Eagles.

The Lady 'Dogs were on a roll and working well together as they defeated them 25-19, 25-13.

This was the Lady Bulldogs' last regular season games entering Saturday's Western Kansas Liberty League Tournament where they placed second.

More details on Golden Plains' league tourney performance will appear later this week.
