State cattleman's meeting set for Saturday in Dodge

Cattlemen around the state are gearing up to attend the Kansas Cattlemen's Association's Annual Cattlemen's Convention and Trade Show Saturday at the United Wireless Arena and Magouirk Conference Center in Dodge City.

The day's events will open with the trade show at 7 a.m.

Speaker sessions will commence at 8 a.m. with Dr. Sandy Johnson discussing heifer development and reproductive strategies and technologies.

Cattle handling expert Dr. Tom Noffsinger will showcase how to maintain calm animals and get the most out of your cattle, and climatologist Mary Knapp will round out the morning session discussing climate trends and how to adjust your operational practices.

The afternoon session will kick off after lunch and retired extension agent Gary Kilgore will provide tips on pasture management and weed and brush control.

After the speaker sessions, additional activities include a 5 p.m. social hour and a 6 p.m. live auction. The evening will conclude with a banquet and special presentation.

Attorney General warns that discount cards could be scam

Kansas Attorney General Derek Schmidt warned consumers Tuesday that prescription discount cards which arrived this past week in many Kansas mailboxes may not be what they appear.

In the past week, many Kansas consumers have reported receiving a prescription discount card in the mail, which they did not

LOS ANGELES (AP) – Authorities say a Nebraska man is getting his motorcycle back – 46 years after it was stolen from his backyard.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection said Monday the black and blue 1953 Triumph Tiger 100 was recovered last week at the Port of Los Angeles. It was on its way to Japan, with its value listed as $9,000.

The bike was reported stolen in February 1967. It was worth $300 request. These cards claim to be able to save you "up to 75 percent on all FDA-approved drugs at pharmacies everywhere."

"Consumers should know these cards are not insurance," Schmidt said. "Even though the cards may be free, the company may be collecting personal information. Consumers should do their home-

The 2012 Sacred Heart Parish Auction Committee would like to extend a HUGE "Thank You" to all of the businesses and individuals who donated to our auction and to everyone who attended the event. Without the generous donations and bidders, our auction would not be the success it was! We look forward to your continued support of this annual event.

A huge thank you goes out to Julie Saddler and all of the City Limits Convention Center staff. We truly appreciate your help, expertise, and cooperation with this annual event. You are all awesome to work with!

We would also like to thank Tom Bruggeman, Rocky Hayes, and Steve Bugbee for auctioneering for us. We could not hold our auction without you.

Finally, we want to thank Linda Van Horn for donating and making the delicious desserts for the dinner!
