Two brothers admit their part in beef theft

By Roxana Hegeman
Associated Press

WICHITA – Two men have admitted their part in the attempted theft of beef from a Kansas slaughterhouse. Prosecutors say this is a newer form of theft in which suspects pose as a legitimate trucking firm to steal cargo.

Fifty-three year old Oganeg Nagapetian pleaded guilty Tuesday in federal court to conspiracy to commit interstate shipment fraud. His 50-year-old brother, Tigran Nagapetian, pleaded guilty to misprision of a felony for lying to Kansas state troopers and concealing his brother's actions.

U.S. District Judge Monti Belot set sentencing for Jan. 27. Federal prosecutors charged the brothers with the attempted theft of $87,500 of packaged beef from the Tyson Fresh Meats plant in Holcomb in 2011.
