The Clarks in 2013

Leoti couple to celebrate 50th

Dick and Kay Clark of Leoti will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Nov. 16, 2013.

The couple married in 1963 at the Valley Heights Christian Church in Westminster, Colo., during a snowstorm.

In the summer of 1964, they moved from Colorado to Kansas, spending time in Coldwater and Sharon Springs before moving to Cheyenne Wells, Colo., for six months over the winter of 1972 and '73. The couple moved to Wichita County in June 1973 to the KanSun Feedlot.

Dick was a truck driver for most of their married life until he began working for the postal service in 1996. He worked there for 17 years until his retirement in November 2012.

The Clarks have five children, Robbin Trompeter of Wichita, Tami (James) Barbour of Denver, Kay-Lin Stolz of Hays, Kip (Laurie) Clark, Baldwin City, and Kevin (Teresa) Clark of Leoti.

They have 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Their family invites the community to shower them with cards sent to 803 W. M Street, Leoti, Kan., 67861.

Harvest of Holidays season is here already

'Tis the season, already! Soon it will be Thanksgiving then even sooner it will be Christmas.

Along with this season comes our annual Harvest of Holidays program. Mark your calendars as this year it will be at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 4, in the basement of Pioneer Memorial Library.

Harvest of Holidays is a fun and educational program that includes tasty treats and a hands-on make-and-take section. We charge a small fee, this year $5, to cover the supplies and other costs. To make sure we have enough supplies for the make-and-take, we ask that you make reservations at the Extension office, 460-4582, by noon on Monday, Dec. 2.

The Harvest of Holidays program is 11 years strong and still going. It is developed and presented in collaboration with one or more Extension agents. Presenters this year will be Melinda Daily, Sunflower District agent from Sharon Springs, and myself. The 2013 theme is "Rise to the Occasion – Breads and Friends."

Down to Earth Breads. The heavenly aroma, the crunch of the golden crust, the total satisfaction that comes from homemade yeast bread is well worth the extra effort and it's easier than you might think.

Melinda and I will cover yeast bread basics, simple shapes, fabulous fillings and toppings, as well as problem-solving pointers. Then participants will make their own dough and a small Walnut Twist ready to bake. Your family will be so happy you attended.

Refrigerator Friends. How many people in your life have "refrigerator rights?" That is, friends that can feel free to come into your home and check out the contents of your refrigerator. Think about that one for a minute.

This session will help identify missing pieces in our modern lifestyle and show us how we can break out of our isolation booths to create the kind of relationships that strengthen us, support us and satisfy our soul.

As you can see, it's going to be a great evening you won't want to miss. Right now, before you forget, call, text or email your family and friends and get a group together for a fun night out. Don't forget to make reservations.

Bonus. What if you can't make it on Wednesday, Dec. 4? You have another opportunity to attend. Part of the collaboration is that we present in each other's counties. We will present the same program at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 3, at the St. Francis Sr. Center. If you would like to attend the Harvest of Holidays program in St. Francis please call the Sharon Springs Extension office (785) 852-4285, by noon Monday, Nov. 25.

Diann Gerstner is the family and consumer sciences agent for the Thomas County Extension office.

Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club

The annual potluck supper and club awards ceremony always brings out a large attendance of members, leaders and parents to the Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club November meeting.

President Brook Ziegelmeier called the meeting to order Nov. 4 and Tucker Gerstner led members in the flag salute to begin the evening. Following the potluck supper Community Leader Donna Lamm presented club awards to members who had achieved completed five- and 10-year memberships.

Cassie Wells received a perfect attendance award and Jory Koon has been selected as the state award winner for shooting sports. Tate Emigh was inducted into the club as the newest Abilene Hustlers member.

The meeting resumed following the awards ceremony and Eryn Freeman led the club members in singing "Twinkle Twinkle." Twenty members answered roll call with their favorite fair activity.

Sara Lamm, secretary read the minutes from the previous meeting and the parliamentary tip of the month was given by Jory Koon.

Reports were given by club officers, Tucker Gerstner, treasurer, Cassie Wells, reporter, and Donna Lamm, community leader.

During the business meeting it was discussed and decided the set up the nativity scene in Fike Park on the 24th of November.

Vice President Josh Koon announced the program. Jake Koon gave a project talk on his entomology project and Kinley Ziegelmeier demonstrated how to make Pilgrim Hat Cookies. Ana Freeman led members in playing ships and sailors for recreation. Josh Koon announced the program for next meeting, which will be the Annual Christmas Soup Supper at 6 p.m.

Corrections

An article, "Small game here comes in season," on Page 10 of the Fall 2013 Nor'West Newspapers' Hunting Guide had inaccurate information about hunting coyotes. You need a hunting license to hunt coyotes and a fur harvesting license to trap them. The only exception is if you are hunting them on your own land. This was an error in information provided to the reporter.
