

Wrestler noticed for skills

Aaron Schields

Former Goodland High School wrestling star Aaron Schields received All-American honorable mention from the Wrestling USA magazine editors.

Schields has been wrestling since he was 6 and trained with the Kansas Kids Wrestling program in Goodland.

“My dad wrestled and so did most of my uncles,” said Schields, “so my dad kind of got me into it.”

He also had a cousin his age who wrestled and many friends who did, too, he said. They all grew up wrestling together.

“I like the lessons it teaches you,” said Schields, “like self discipline, courage and being mentally tough.”

He learned discipline through his weight training, said Schields, as well as in actual matches.

“Trying to maintain weight requires a lot of discipline,” said Schields.

Schields was state champion for the past two years in the 152-pound weight class this year, and was ranked every year he was in High School.

In order to receive the award Schields had to fill out a form and be nominated by a coach.

The applicants were then judged on a basis of grade point average, class ranking, and wrestling accomplishments. Their applications were judged by coaches, sportswriters and the editors of Wrestling USA.

Giants crush the Rockies 12-7

DENVER (AP) — Shawn Estes pitched seven strong innings, and Rich Aurilia had three hits and four RBIs as the San Francisco Giants beat the Colorado Rockies 12-7 Tuesday night.

Bobby Estalella and Jeff Kent homered for the Giants, whose first nine runs — and 11 of their 12 — came with two outs.

Estes (7-3) went 7 1-3 innings, allowing just six hits and leaving with a 12-3 lead. Reliever Felix Rodriguez inherited two runners and allowed both to score on RBI singles by Mike Lansing and Jeffrey Hammonds. The Rockies pushed across two more runs before Rodriguez fanned Brian Hunter for the third out.

Estes, who entered with the best run support in the majors (7.0 runs per game), benefitted from the Giants' 15-hit attack that included eight doubles. But Estes also contributed an RBI double and a sacrifice bunt.

Rockies manager Buddy Bell was ejected by home-plate umpire Jerry Layne in the eighth inning after arguing that Estes threw at Tom Goodwin.

The Giants chased Colorado starter Kevin Jarvis (2-3) after five innings, taking a 6-3 lead.

Kent led off the second with a double and, with two outs, Aurilia hit an RBI single and Estalella followed with a two-run homer, his ninth.

In the fourth, J.T. Snow doubled and scored on Aurilia's two-out double down the left-field line. After the Rockies intentionally walked Estalella, Estes lined an RBI double to left-center.

In the fifth, again with two outs, Kent hit a 427-foot solo homer, his 20th and his NL-leading 73rd RBI. Snow then singled, went to second on a wild pitch and attempted to score on Ellis Burks' single but was gunned down at the plate by left fielder Brian Hunter.

Colorado scored twice in the third. Scott Servais and Neifi Perez hit back-to-back doubles. Perez went to third on Jarvis' sacrifice and scored on Tom Goodwin's sacrifice fly.

The Rockies added an unearned run in the fourth. Todd Helton walked, Jeff Cirillo hit an infield single and both runners advanced when third baseman Bill Mueller threw wild to second. Hunter then lined a run-scoring single to right. Estes avoided further damage, snaring Servais' hard grounder and starting a double play.

Marvin Benard's two-out, run-scoring single off Scott Karl made it 7-3 in the sixth. After walks to Kent and Burks in the seventh, Aurilia hit a two-run double to left. Snow and Calvin Murray had back-to-back RBI doubles in the eighth.

Royals defeated by Indians 21-1

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Jim Thome homered twice, went 4-for-4 and drove in four runs and Richie Sexson also had four RBIs as the Cleveland Indians defeated the Kansas City Royals 21-1 Tuesday night.

Sexson and Sandy Alomar also homered for the Indians.

Chuck Finley (6-5) allowed one run through five innings, but threw 111 pitches. He allowed runners in four of his five innings, stranding six.

Mac Suzuki (3-2) allowed four runs in 5 1-3 innings.

The game capsulized the trouble the Royals have had all season. Kansas City has allowed 128 home runs, the most in the majors this season. The Royals also lead the American League with 329 walks — issuing five Tuesday.

The Indians' 120 home runs are third best in the American League and fourth most in the majors. Cleveland has received 302 walks, the third most in the AL.

The Indians took the lead in the second when Thome hit his 22nd home
