

White Sox slide by Royals

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Herbert Perry hit a two-run homer in the 13th inning and Mark Johnson followed with a solo shot, leading the Chicago White Sox over the Kansas City Royals 6-3 Wednesday night.

Kelly Wunsch (3-2) pitched two shutout innings the win. Doug Bachtler (0-1) lost for Kansas City, which outthrew the White Sox 17-13.

Rey Sanchez, who went 4-for-7, loaded the bases for Kansas City when he reached on a bunt single with one out in the 11th. With left fielder Carlos Lee brought in as a fifth infielder, Mike Sweeney hit a bouncer up the middle to second baseman Ray Durham, who stepped on second and threw to first for a double play.

With runners at the corners in the 12th following an intentional walk to Frank Thomas — his AL-leading 14th, Magglio Ordonez hit into an inning-ending double play, with the runners on both ends appearing to reach safely.

Kansas City led 3-2 before Paul Konerko homered in the eighth off Dan Reichert, who allowed eight hits in a career-high eight innings. He struck out six — also a career high — and walked one. Reichert, who made his third start of the season, appeared 23 times out of the bullpen before joining the rotation on June 24.

White Sox starter Jim Parque gave up three runs and 10 hits in six innings.

Dave McCarty had RBI doubles in the fourth and sixth innings for the Royals. His second double was a sixth-inning drive to the gap in left center field and drove home Joe Randa, for a 3-2 lead.

Rockies lose to Giants, again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With Barry Bonds sidelined by a broken thumb, the San Francisco Giants are getting their power from unlikely sources.

Rich Aurilia hit a two-run homer, Marvin Benard added a solo shot, and Joe Nathan became the third straight Giants pitcher to shut down Colorado's suddenly weak offense as San Francisco defeated the Rockies 4-2.

Aurilia's eighth homer of the season gave the Giants a 3-2 lead in the seventh. Benard, who hit his seventh homer leading off the sixth inning, added a sacrifice fly later in the seventh for San Francisco's final run.

The Rockies scored their two runs in the seventh, on an RBI double by Darren Bragg and a sacrifice fly by pinch-hitter Terry Shumpert.

Stan Belinda (1-2), who came in at the start of the seventh and failed to get an out while allowing three runs on three hits, was the loser. Starter Pedro Astacio pitched six innings, allowing one run on five hits.

Jayhawks coach still undecided

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — A haggard Roy Williams, after walking around the Kansas campus alone, said Thursday he would try to reach a decision later in the day on whether to stay or go back home to coach at North Carolina.

After flying back from the Carolinas Wednesday evening, Williams met for about two hours Thursday with athletic director Bob Frederick and Chancellor Robert Hemenway.

Engulfed by reporters as he tried to slip into a side door at Allen Fieldhouse, Williams appeared exhausted. "I am tired," he said.

"I was just trying to sneak away from you guys to get some time to walk around on campus by myself," he said.

"I've just got to make a decision. I can't go on like this. And you guys can't go on like this. I apologize for putting you through this. I've just got to have what I think is the right feeling. I'm hoping we'll know something real soon."

Williams said he has been agonizing over the decision for at least a week.

He said that he hoped to make a decision on his future later in the day but added, "Don't hold me to that."

Williams has been to the Final Four twice with Kansas, but has not won it.

He is trying to decide whether to stay with a promising Jayhawks team or go home to North Carolina, where he spent years as an assistant under Dean Smith.

He has said he will announce a decision on or before Friday, which is the last day before the summer recruiting period begins.

Kansas desperately wants to keep Williams.

He is torn between his ties to North Carolina and Smith and the powerful basketball tradition of the Jayhawks and Allen Fieldhouse.
