Open Forum — The Sherman County Farm Bureau will host an open forum of candidates running for state and county offices at 7 p.m. tonight at the Goodland Elks Lodge. Citizens are urged to attend and get to know the candidates, as the primary election is Aug. 1.

Historical Meeting — The Sherman County Historical Society will hold its monthly program from noon-1 p.m. Wednesday at the Senior Center in Goodland. The topic of discussion will be the J.B. Moore Diary (1886-1894).

Veterans' Affairs — Jody Tubbs, of the Kansas Commission on Veterans' Affairs, will be available to assist veterans and their dependents with claims work from 1-2:15 p.m. Thursday in the assembly room on the third floor of the Goodland courthouse. If you miss her, you may call the Colby office any Monday, Wednesday, or Friday at (785) 462-3572.

Band Performance — The Kansas Army National Guard 35th Infantry Division Band will perform at 7 p.m. Thursday at Chambers Park, 13th and Sherman, Goodland. There is no admission charge, but homemade ice cream will be sold to benefit the Goodland Arts Council. People are encouraged to bring lawn chairs or blankets and come out for the concert.

Book Sale — The Goodland Public Library will hold its annual book sale Thursday through Saturday. Items for sale will include hardback and paperback books, magazines, puzzles, records, and cassettes. Any remaining items will be sold throughout August. The library is still accepting donations for the sale.

Shut-In Dance — An alternative night shut-in dance for seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students will be held from 7:30-11 p.m. Friday at the 4-H Building. Students may bring CDs clearly marked with their name. Admission is a baby or adult hygiene product to be given to the Northwest Kansas Family Shelter. The dance is sponsored by the Hispanic Advisory Board, 24 Hour Relay Challenge Committee and Sherman County Health Committee.

SHARE — The distribution of low cost food in exchange for volunteer work for July will be from 9-10 a.m. Saturday at 824 Main in Goodland.

Nominations Wanted — The 4-H Ambassadors are asking the community for nominations for this year's fair parade marshal. Nominations along with a brief note telling why you feel the person is worthy of the honor should be submitted to the Extension Office by Wednesday, July 26.

Singles Group — The Thursday Night Together Christian singles group will meet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, July 27, at Marie Edwards' Dance Hall. Bring a sack supper.

Fair Parade Entries — The 4-H Ambassadors will sponsor the Northwest Kansas District Free Fair Parade to be held at 6 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 5, and are seeking entries for it. Categories are individual, float, other and sunflower awards. The Goodland Chamber of Commerce will give the sunflower awards in celebration of the Sunflower Festival. Entries will be judged during the parade with the winners to be announced at the fairgrounds immediately afterwards. Entry forms are available at local banks, the Chamber of Commerce office and the Extension Office and need to be turned in by Thursday, Aug. 3.

Alberta M. Archer

Alberta May Archer, 85, Kanorado, a longtime china painter, died Sunday, July 16, 2000, at the Kit Carson County Memorial Hospital in Burlington, Colo. She was born Aug. 7, 1914, in Beardsley, the daughter of Cora M. (Lockwood) and Walter H. Macho.

Alberta Archer

She attended the White Lily Country School and graduated from Rawlins County High School in Atwood. She attended normal training to become a teacher and taught in a country school in Rawlins County for six years.

She and Everett Archer were married on June 27, 1937, at Ellsworth.

She was a homemaker. She painted china for over 20 years. She taught the art to others in the area and at McCook, Neb. and Filer, Idaho.

She enjoyed flowers, gardening, and spending time with her grandchildren.

She was a member of the State Line Extension Homemakers Unit and the local chapter of the Porcelain Art Guild.

She attended the United Methodist Church in Kanorado.

Her funeral service will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the church in Kanorado with Pastor Carol Moore Ramey officiating.

Burial will follow in the Kanorado Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 3 to 8 p.m. today at Koons Funeral Chapel in Goodland and from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the church.

Survivors include her son, Norman Archer, New Castle, Wyo.; her daughter, Carol Waller, Kanorado; a sister, Laverne Pickett, Goodland; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband in 1978; and two sisters, Georgia Smith and Gertrude Dean.

Memorials may be made to the Kanorado Senior Center and left at or sent to Koons Funeral Home, 211 N. Main, Goodland, Kan. 67735.

club news

Business and Professional Women

The Goodland Business and Professional Women's Club met July 3 at Ray's Cafe for their monthly dinner meeting.

The meeting was opened by Vice President Cindy Robben. All of the members said the club collect.

The treasurer's report was given by Patsy VanVleet.

VanVleet read a letter from Winifred Kirk, who gave a donation of $10 to the club.

Public Relations Chairman Mary

Schippert gave a report on public relations.

She said that everyone needs to have it to succeed in business. Modern science has found that the adjustment of individuals, groups and institutions to life is necessary for the well being of all.

Knowledge of public relations is vital today to get along with the public. Activity in this area makes competition more effective and efficient.

It is an implementing factor in many and varied competitive battles for public support in the country.

Remember the public must be informed as the world changes and that private businesses must be in the interest of the public in order to survive, Schippert explained.

The next meeting will be Monday, Aug. 7, with Patsy VanVleet of the program committee in charge.

Beulah McClung made a motion to adjourn the meeting, which was seconded by Esther Studer.
