4-h club news

Glendale Livewires 4-H

The monthly meeting of the Glendale Livewires 4-H Club was held on May 15 in the 4-H Building. It was called to order by President Deanna Livengood. Roll call was "If you were an animal, what would you be?" There were 10 members and two leaders present. David Livengood led the song "Do Your Ears Hang Low?"

During the business meeting, the club discussed the thank you card sent by the Good Samaritan Center for the May Day baskets that were delivered to them. Council Representative Darin Richardson gave a council report and Amy Anderson gave the treasurer's report and a committee report.

Following the business meeting, Chad Kallsen gave a project talk about horses. Another project talk was given by Deanna Livengood on her steer project. David Livengood told "how to sand your rocket fins" for his project talk.

There was no recreation time because the club moved to adjourn the meeting early for a treat at Dairy Queen. The next meeting will be the club tour in June.
