

Pastor John Coumerilh and his wife, Mary Ellen, of the Word of Life Foursquare Church in Goodland, put leftover shoes in boxes late Saturday after the stream of people coming to their show giveaway had slowed

Photo by Janet Craft/The Goodland Daily News

Feet find shoes thanks to church

SHOE, from Page 1

Francis, the pastor said, and had acquired them from a shoe store that went out of business. The family wanted to get rid of the shoes and asked if the church wanted them.

Mary Ellen said they thought they could be a blessing to their community. "Soles for souls," John said.

The couple said one family that took a bunch of shoes and were going to give them to kids in Kanorado. Someone else took a pickup load of shoes so that they could take them to Mexico in December.

The Coumerilhs said they may send the leftover shoes to a Foursquare Church in St. Louis that has an inner city ministry.

John said their denomination sends missionaries around the world, so they can send the shoes to their mission department and they will send them wherever they are needed.

The number of people who turned out for the giveaway exceeded the Coumerilh's expectations.

church Friday night, there was a line of people waiting to get in and the church was packed. Another wave of people ing shoes." came after 5 p.m. Friday. Then on Saturday, they saw a steady stream of traffic in the early morning.

They advertised the giveaway on television and in The Goodland Daily News.

"A lot of people found shoes, so I was glad," Mary Ellen said.

Some of the kids were so cute and so "No returns."

Board to elect officers

Area Medical Foundation tops the agenda for Tuesday night's hospital board meeting, followed by election of officers

The county commissioners reappointed board members in June and the tions for board officers are held in July.

Policy manuals to be looked over this month will include Nursing I, Nursing II, tal board room.

John said when they first opened the excited, she said, telling how one 6year-old boy came up to her and said, "Look what I found. They're my bowl-

"It's not often that a child or a teenager can come home with five or six pairs of shoes," John said.

'So, it's a treat," added Mary Ellen. She said they had shoes in all sizes for all ages with a lot of different styles. There's just one rule.

"We have a return policy," John said.

A report from the Northwest Kansas and Obstetrics.

Administrator Jim Chaddic will report on this month's strategic planning meeting involving the hospital's department heads, and give the administrator's report

The board has allowed time from 8:30 new board terms started July 1, so elec- to 9 p.m. for an executive session to discuss personnel.

It will meet at 6:30 p.m. in the hospikanorado chronology

By Dixie Hooker

Useless facts: The first Harley Davidson motorcycle built in 1903 used a tomato can for a carburetor.

Vicki and Randy Phillips got together with Vicki's brother Jim Abbey and his wife Deniece, of Oberlin, Kansas a little over a week ago, for a nice one-week vacation together at Tuttle Creek and Council Grove, Kansas.

Vicki said they had a wonderful time enjoying the boat and fishing. She said it was in the low 80's with rain in the morning but stopping early in the day so it didn't keep them from having fun each day. They spent quite a bit of the time sightseeing while down there.

The kindness of others: A Post Office worker at the main sorting office finds an unstamped, poorly hand-written envelope addressed to God.

He opens it and discovers it is from an elderly lady, distressed because some thief robbed her of 100 dollars. She will be cold and hungry for the rest of the month if she doesn't receive some divine intervention. The worker organizes a collection amongst the other postal workers, who dig deep and come up with 96 dollars.

They got it to her by special courier the same morning. A week later, the same postal worker recognizes the same hand on another envelope.

He opens it and reads: "Dear God, thank you for the 100 dollars. This month would have been so bleak otherwise. "P.S. It was four dollars short but that was probably those thieving people at the Post Office."

Well, with the primary here already, I found this interesting and it was in a newspaper, which was dated: 1915.

Should women vote? This, like every other question, has two sides, each possessing arguments, which appeal to their champions.

But if there is any one reason on earth why a woman should not vote is this: Because she is a woman! And compared to this, all other reasons pale into insignificance.

Some people assume to think that women should not vote because she is not man's mental equal. But that is mere subterfuge, for every intelligent man must admit that he could not have been blessed with the power of thought and reason had his mother not transmitted them to him. Because she is a woman!

Woman's great province on this earth is to bring children into the world and perpetuate the human race, and when she performs this divine obligation as the Creator intended she is rendering her full duty to society. Other than the care of the home and ministering to the sick and afflicted, more should not be asked of her. Because she is woman posterity depend primarily upon the always two sides.

Yes, and because she is a woman she should be protected and shielded from the storms of life, from the mental quagmire of present day political campaigns, from contact with rougher and sterner side of humanity. Because she is woman!

traits of character transmitted from the mother to the child, and many believe that to drag woman into the political arena would be a detriment to the humanity of the future. Because she is woman! And the world needs no better reason

Well gals, just bet I made your day. (grins) The only way to feel better is to go vote. I have a feeling those gals that got us the vote, worked harder and put up with more than we can imagine.

Oh here is another goody: "...idiots. imbeciles, aliens, the insane and women ... " - A law standing in Texas until 1918 regulating who could not

Susan and husband Dave, along with son Chad, visited Susan's dad in Wyoming earlier this month. Susan wound up doing extensive shopping with her father, as his TV quit, and no one can make it without one of those hummers!

Life's lessons: I've learned that no The mental and moral condition of matter how thin you slice it, there are

Elect Jack Armstrong Sheriff

Qualifications

- Life Long Resident
- 4 Years Goodland Police Dept. (1965-1969)
- 28 Years Sheriff of Sherman County (1969-1995)
- Graduated, National Sheriff's Institute, University of Southern California
- President of the Kansas Sheriff's Association (1978)
- Special Deputy U.S. Marshal (1978 to present)

I would appreciate your vote in the August 1st primary election.

(Pol. Adv. Paid for by Jack Armstrong\Sharon Bowker, Treasurer)

South Western Bell 3x9 100% In Back

First National Bank 3x10 100% In Back