

Mustangs stomp Colby Eagles 22-0

The Grant Junior High Mustangs shut out the Colby Eagles last Thursday for a 22-0 victory.

The two seventh-grade teams met at Cowboy Stadium in Goodland to play the first game of the season. The eighth-grade Mustangs also took the field that afternoon, but didn't have as good of a showing, scoring only six points while the Eagles won the game with a score of 14.

The seventh-grade Mustangs' Bobby Miller made two touchdowns and ran 49 yards over three attempts. Jase Herl ran 30 yards and scored one touchdown in nine carries. He scored another four points by completing two 2-point conversions.

Jon Beeson gained 15 yards over three carries, Josh Ford four yards in two; and Bryant Nemecheck and Brandon Hatfield one yard.

Julian Walls lost nine yards during the three times he had the ball and Brandon Zelfer lost five yards in three carries.

Zelfer, a quarterback for the Mustangs, made one 20-yard pass for his team, which Derek Fenner caught.

Miller had 12 tackles; Beeson, Herl, Jared Robinson and Nemecheck, 3 each; Fenner, 2; and Mark Starr, Ford, Tarrin Keith, Zelfer and Heath Chatfield, 1 each.

The eighth graders had a good running and passing game and some exciting plays.

Quarterback Derrick Raymer helped score the team's lone touch down by throwing to Bret Jarmin who caught the ball and completed an 85-yard pass play. The team missed the extra point, leaving the score at 6 points.

Though he didn't score, the Mustang's David Livengood gained 81 yards for his team and had eight carries. Raymer also had eight carries, running 40 yards.

Brock Lohr had four carries and gained 28 yards; Dexter Deeds one carry and 5 yards and Daniel Blake two carries and 4 yards.

Tyson Ruddell made one fumble recovery and five tackles.

Livengood made five tackles; Richard Bauman, 4; Lohr, Wade Taylor, Josh Perez and Jarmin, 3 each; Joe Kaup, 2; and Anthony Benevides, Jake Johnson, Dexter Deeds, Raymer and Darren Howard, 1 each.

Both teams took on Hoxie this week.

The eighth-grade Mustangs will travel to Atwood on Thursday to play the Buffaloes.

Aiming for the serve

An eighth-grade volleyball player set up a serve in Thursday night's game against Hoxie. Goodland won all four games against the Indians. The A team won 15-7 and 15-6, and the B team won 16-14 and 15-13. The Mustangs will play their next game at Atwood at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday.

Yankees get help from Royals' bullpen

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — For eight innings, the New York Yankees somehow could not score against Dan Reichert, even though he tied a Royals record with nine walks.

But when the Yankees got help from Kansas City's bullpen, they took advantage.

David Justice homered to cap a seven-run eruption in the ninth inning and the Yankees rallied past the Royals 7-3 Thursday night.

Reichert pitched eight scoreless innings despite matching Dick Drago's team record for walks. He allowed only two hits and left with a 1-0 edge.

"It's weird how the game of baseball goes," Reichert said. "At the beginning of the year, if I had walked nine guys we'd be down 9-0. But it worked out for the best today. I think I made some pretty good pitches when I needed to."

The Kansas City bullpen, however, could not hold the lead.

"It was a big win for us," New York manager Joe Torre said. "Any game at this point in the schedule is big, especially coming back."

Jose Canseco drew a leadoff walk in the ninth from Ricky Bottalico (7-5), and pinch-runner Chuck Knoblauch moved to second on Scott Brosius' single.

That was all for Bottalico, who blew his eighth save chance in 23 opportunities, and Kris Wilson relieved. Pinch-hitter Luis Polonia bunted back to the mound, and Wilson made a wild throw to third that scored the tying run.

Jose Vizcaino hit an RBI single for a 2-1 lead. Derek Jeter had an RBI double and Ryan Thompson hit a two-run single. The Royals brought in Scott Mullen, and Justice hit his 36th homer into the right-field bullpen.

"We're going to have to find somebody to get some people out," Royals manager Tony Muser said. "We need somebody who is dependable. Late in the game, we need to throw strikes and get people out."

Mark Quinn and Dave McCarty hit RBI singles in the Royals ninth. Mariano Rivera relieved for the last out, getting his 33rd save.

Denny Neagle (6-4) allowed two hits through seven innings, then gave up two more in the eighth that set up the Royals' first run. He struck out four and walked none.

"That was definitely an interesting game," Neagle said. "I really did feel like it wasn't our night. Especially after we have nine walks and we couldn't get a run across in the first eight innings, you just felt like it was going to be one of those nights."

New York drew two walks in the eighth, but Reichert induced Jorge Posada to ground into a double play.

Notes: Jeter was 1-for-5, extending his streak to 32 consecutive games of reaching base safely.

The Yankees walked 10 times overall. They now have walked 271 times in the 54 games since the All-Star Game (4.9 per game), the most in the majors.
