

Cowgirls sweep quad again

Varsity volleyball defends their No. 1 ranking

The Goodland Cowgirls varsity volleyball team seems to be an unstoppable force this year. The team took their winning streak on the road this week, where they breezed through a quad meet at Colby. The Cowgirls have won every match so far this year, to earn a record of 17-0 and a No. 1 ranking in the state in Class 4A.

"We played pretty steady through the day," said Coach Jerry McKee, as he said about their home quad last week where Goodland swamped the three visiting teams. In the first match of the Colby quad, Goodland took Scott City 15-12 and 15-8. They played Wheatland next for a win of 15-5 and 15-10, and in their final match against Colby they won 15-

12 and 15-7. The junior varsity also won all three of the matches at the tournament. The freshman team traveled to Brewster on Saturday to compete in a tournament, where they finished fourth. Their next game will be a home quad match tonight at 3:30 p.m. Varsity, junior varsity and freshman will all play.
