George Hilton, a retired Methodist pastor and grandson of the late J. K. and Myrtle Hilton, delivered the services at the Brewster United Methodist Church on Oct. 1 and 8. On Oct. 8, the Hilton family was to be guests at a potluck dinner at noon. George resides in Connecticut and plans to visit with LaVelle Michael and other relatives while he is in the area.

Flu shots will be available from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., Central Time, on Tuesday, Nov. 7 at the Brewster Senior Center.

There will be a charge of $8 per shot. For those with Medicare cards, please have your card with you that day. But remember, the shots aren't available until November.

Kathy Ryan, head nurse, says there will be plenty of serum available, so don't panic, but be sure to mark Nov. 7 on your calendar.

Another way you can remember Nov. 7 is that it's election day. So go vote and then come and get a flu shot. Or else, come and get a shot and then go vote.

Both of these are important things to do, so don't forget. We will have our regular nurses' visit on Oct. 17.

Coleen and Marion Crumrine enjoyed having their kids as supper guests on Sunday, Sept. 24. Carlene and Joe Moore of Lakin; Carolyn and Brian Somers, Christy and Chad of Brewster; and Willard Crumrine, of Brewster; were all at their folks' house.

Coleen reports that Marion's sister, Malda Crumrine Patton, passed away on Sept. 27 at her home in Carlisle, Ind. Malda graduated from Brewster in 1954 and married Elmer Patton.

They made their home in Brewster in the early 1970s and moved to Indiana from here. Our sympathy goes to her family and friends from this area.

Another former Brewster person, George Bear, passed away on Sept. 27 in Goodland.

George and his late wife, Elaine, lived here until the '70s and then moved to Goodland. He graduated from Brewster High School in 1936.

The football team keeps things interesting for us and we hope the play-offs will include Brewster. Time is going so fast that it won't be long until we're getting into them.

The spring and fall months seem to be going quite fast. It's hard to believe that September has already come and gone.

Anyone interested in Girl Scouts can contact Angi at 694-2929, Pam at 694-2890, or Sherrie at 694-2267. This group needs to have new involvement and commitment by the ones who want their daughters or granddaughters to receive the benefits of this national group.

Hope everyone is adjusting to the changes in their newspaper. If anyone has anything for me to report for them, just call me Tuesday through Friday at the Senior Center and I will get it in this column.

We at Brewster wish Eric and Roxie the very best in whatever direction they head and also much success to the new publishers that will be covering the area events.

The phone number at the Senior Center is (785) 694-2645. Hope you all have a good week and we'll see you next time.
