club news

Business and Professional Women

The Goodland Business and Professional Women met Oct. 2 at 516 E. Sixth with Beulah McClung as hostess.

President Nina Mersch opened the meeting by having the members recite the Club Collect and then the flag salute.

The treasurer's report was given by Patsy VanVleet. The minutes were read, corrected and then approved.

Cindy Robben gave a reading entitled "The Basement."

The next meeting will be on Monday, Nov. 6.

A motion was made to have the meeting at Beulah McClung's home at Handy Towers. The motion carried. The theme will be Thanksgiving, since the holiday will be close at hand.

A menu has been planned so each person will bring a special dish for the meeting. The list is: Patsy, dressing; Cindy, green beans; Beulah, corn; Velma, salad; Esther, cranberries; Myrtle, turkey; Nina, mashed potatoes; Shauna, rolls; Patsy and Mary, pies. The loan and scholarship committee will be in charge. Chairman Patsy VanVleet, Myrtle Murphy and Shauna Anderson will help.

Each member present received a gift. The meeting was closed by singing "Blessed Be The Tie That Binds."

Lincoln Larks FCE Club

The Lincoln Larks Family and Community Education Club met Oct. 3 at the home of Colleen Duell.

Five members answered roll call by giving a craft tip.

The minutes were read and reports were given. An article called "Wash Your Hands" was sent to the newspaper to replace a window display for National Family and Community Education Week.

A book about John Elway was placed in the library in memory of Ralph Topliff.

Colleen Duell gave the lesson on gelled potpourri. Each member chose their favorite and took home about four sets.

For the next meeting, a health awareness workshop will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 6 in the meeting room of Western State Bank.
