IN MEMORY

In Memory of Lavern (Bud) Reed Nov. 6, 1985

The Day God Called You Home God looked around his garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. His garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best. He saw your path was difficult, he closed your tired eyes. He whispered to you "Peace be thine," and gave you wings to fly. You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide. You live on thru your children, you're always by our side. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.

Shirley Reed and Family

THANK YOU

Our heartfelt thanks to all of our family and friends for the visits, cards, phone calls, food and flowers received in the loss of our mother. Your thoughts, prayers, and shared memories were deeply appreciated. A special thank you to the nursing staff and Dr. Jennings for the compassionate care she received while in the hospital. The family of Eileen Cech Barbara Cech Joe and Jean Cech Mary Cech and Dennis Hayes Jim and Lisa Cech

Goodland Daily News

A man wakes up in the morning after sleeping on an advertised bed, in advertised pajamas. He will bathe in an advertised tub, wash with advertised soap, shave with an advertised shaving cream, eat a breakfast of advertised juice, cereal and toast (toasted in an advertised toaster), put on advertised clothes, and glance at his advertised watch. He will ride to work in an advertised car, sit at an advertised desk and write with an advertised pen. Yet this man hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising doesn't pay. Finally, when his unadvertised business fails, he will advertise it for sale.
