By Dana Sulsberger
The Goodland Daily News
The Grant Junior High Mustangs eighth grade A team won its game Thursday against Quinter in overtime, 42-37, while the B team lost 35-26. Goodland's luck wasn't so good on Friday at a tournament in Colby. The B team lost its first game against Oberlin 14-11 and the second against Oakley was lost 36-34. Thursday, the A team had to fight into overtime for the win against Quinter. "The team played with much more intensity this game," said Coach Terry Daise. "Execution was greatly improved."

Drew Wilkens was the high scorer with 10 point. He also managed three steals and one assist. David Livengood had nine points, followed by Derrick Raymer with eight. Lane Winter managed not only seven points but also six rebounds and a steal. "Our defense was outstanding for most of the game," said the coach. "We came back from a seven-point deficit with about three minutes left to win in overtime." In the B team game, Goodland lost to Quinter by nine points. High scorers were A.J. Schields and Tysen Ruddell with six points, James Nelson and Brandon Cowan with four each and Josh Perez, D.J. Sparks and Joe Lindsley all with two each. Big rebounders for the game were Schields and Lindsley with three boards each and Cowan, Craig Mason and Sparks with two each. Dexter Deeds managed three steals and six assists in the game. The tournament on Friday didn't go well for the B team. In the first game, high scorers were Schields with five points. He also managed three rebounds and three steals. Deeds and Cowan each scored two points. Mason and Perez managed three rebounds and three steals each and Rudell got three rebounds. In the second game, high scorers were Mason with nine points, eight rebounds and two steals, Sparks with eight points, Perez with seven and seven rebounds with three steals, and Schields with six points, two rebounds and a steal.

Kansas State gets rematch with Sooners

By The Associated Press
Kansas State is about to get its wish — a rematch with top-ranked Oklahoma. In October, the Sooners ended the Wildcats' 25-game home winning streak. That month, Kansas State also lost to Texas A&M. Three straight wins later, with the big one a one-point victory over Nebraska, and Kansas State is in the Big 12 championship game for the second time in three years. Kansas State (10-2, 6-2) and Oklahoma (10-0, 7-0) square off Dec. 2 in Kansas City. "A lot of people counted us out after we lost to A&M," quarterback

Jonathan Beasley said. "It was a motivational factor for us." Coach Bill Snyder wasn't happy about the regular-season finale, a 28-24 victory at Missouri. Kansas State scored all but three of its points in the second quarter but sputtered in all phases most of the day. That left Snyder and players in less than a celebratory mood after the game. Snyder said he'd start focusing on Oklahoma once the team straightens itself out. "I did want them to understand that under any circumstances, they were still the Northern Division champions, and were still a 10-2 team and that I was proud and pleased," Snyder said. "But I also shared with them how it important it was for all of us to making a very, very strong commitment to improving. "We did not play nearly as well as we were capable of, and certainly not as well as we have in the past few weeks." Snyder said Kansas State players and coaches might need a bit of a breather in the two-week gap before the conference championship. The team will practice early this week, then take a few days off for Thanksgiving. "Our kids need some time, they certainly do," Snyder said. "Probably our assistant coaches need some time as well. "And they'll get a little bit. Not much, but a little bit." Oklahoma advanced to the title game with a 27-13 victory over Texas Tech that was a little more difficult than had been anticipated. Heisman Trophy hopeful Josh Heupel was intercepted twice and had a season-low 248 yards passing, but led Oklahoma 71 yards in 12 plays for the clinching touchdown. Oklahoma beat Kansas State 41-31 Oct. 14, handing the Wildcats their first loss in seven games. Heupel was 29-of-37 for 374 yards and two touchdowns in that game against a defense that had been ranked No. 1. "We played terrible against them in the first half, and we came back out in the second half and played hard and almost caught back up," defensive end Chris Johnson said. "Knowing we can play with them, and beat them, it's great motivation."

Chiefs fall to the Bills; reversed call leads to win

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Doug Flutie's fans don't have much to say now. Rob Johnson, making a controversial start after his popular backup guided Buffalo to three wins in a row, threw two touchdown passes and got the go-ahead score on a Flutie-like scramble Sunday, lifting the Bills to a 21-17 victory over Kansas City. Johnson, pressured out of the pocket, scrambled left on third-and-12 and jumped to the end-zone pylon. Officials first ruled that Marcus Patton shoved him out of bounds on the one. But the Bills asked for a review and got the call reversed, making it 21-17 with 2:58 left.

Wide receiver Eric Moulds, who caught eight passes for 67 yards and a touchdown, was put in for defense and batted away Elvis Grbac's pass into the end zone as time expired. A few minutes after Buffalo went ahead 14-10 early in the fourth quarter, Grbac engineered a 13-play, 63-yard drive and put the Chiefs (5-6) on top 17-14 with a 9-yard TD pass to Tony Gonzalez.
