

Big 12 mows down the mighty

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — If the Big 12 is rebuilding, then what in the world is the Big Ten up to? No fewer than three Big 10 teams took a tumble Saturday in one of the finest days the Big 12 has ever had. Altogether Saturday, while going 7-0, the Big 12 vanquished four ranked teams. Even Kansas State got into the act. Winless against Top 20 teams since

January 1994, the supposedly woeful Wildcats got 31 points from Larry Reid and beat No. 19 Iowa 86-78. Texas got Darren Kelly back from academic suspension and upended No. 5 Illinois 72-64. At Columbus, Ohio. No.9 Kansas slipped past Ohio State 69-68. Against No. 25 Arkansas, No. 18 Oklahoma erased a nine-point second-half deficit to defeat the Razorbacks

88-79 in overtime. In Laie, Hawaii, Iowa State got a big second half from Jamaal Tinsley and took down No. 24 Mississippi 73-68. “Texas just beat Illinois and Oklahoma beat Arkansas and Kansas State beat Iowa,” said Iowa State coach Larry Eustachy. “And we just beat Ole Miss. So we’re going to see this down the road in the conference tournament.” Rounding out the Big 12’s big day, Baylor got 18 points each from Terry Black and Chad Elsey and downed North Texas 88-63, and Colorado’s D.J. Harrison scored 22 points in a 109-86 victory over Colorado State. Oklahoma struggled most of the night but was 5-of-6 from the floor in the final 1 minutes, 43 seconds to force overtime. Hollis Price scored all 21 of his points after halftime, including nine in overtime. Still, the Sooners tied a season-low with 40 percent shooting.
