Brewster girls lose to 'eastern' Lady 'Dawgs

BREWSTER — Brewster's girls and Quinter's girls often seemed to be playing at two different speeds Tuesday night. Quinter (4-10) was playing in a higher gear than Brewster (3-8) and won going away, 59-40.

Brewster stayed with Quinter in the early going, taking the lead, 6-5, on Alicia Collett's old-fashioned three-point play, but the girls would never lead again. Quinter then started a 6-0 run that left Brewster permanently behind.

Brewster trailed by 11, 31-20, at the half, but the team put together a comeback in the third.

BREWSTER — The rain in Spain stays mainly on the plain, but in Brewster last night, the rain came from three-point land.

Brewster's Jay Reid and Quinter's Matt Seidl both rained three-pointers in the fourth quarter, but Brewster prevailed, 81-76. The western Bulldogs had to come from behind to win.

Both teams are now 11-1. The game was as exciting as a meeting between No. 1 (Brewster in Class 1A) and No. 2 (Quinter in 2A) should be.

Brewster led by six at the end of the first quarter, perhaps lulling the boys into too much confidence. And they were troubled by illness.

Brewster's Brett Arnberger and Clint Horinek had to rest until it was time to warm up and Justin Jamison was only a little better off.

"They gutted it out," Brewster coach Larry O'Connor said. "Our team showed why they are champions tonight."

Whatever the reason, Quinter outscored Brewster by 10 points in the second quarter, ending the half with a 40-37 lead.

Brewster took back the lead at 4:30 in the third on back-to-back buckets from P.J. Crumbaker and Jamison, then a Jay Reid free throw. Then Quinter tied the game at 46 when Lance Tilton scored.

The rest of the third quarter continued that pattern: Brewster would pull ahead, then Quinter would tie.

As the third ended, Horinek got a steal and found Rob Garner, who passed back to Horinek to make it 54-52, Brewster.

Reid opened the fourth with a lay-up, then Seidl put down an NBA three. Reid answered with a three. The rain of threes continued for the next minute, with Seidl scoring six points and Reid nine. But Tilton also scored inside during the rain. When it ended, Brewster led by five, 65-60, with 6:05 left.

Quinter's Trey Look and Seidl scored consecutive two-point buckets to bring the eastern Bulldogs within one, 65-64. Reid then found Arnberger for another three to reach a four-point margin, 68-64.

Quinter then moved inside, picking up six straight points to take a 72-69 lead with 2:50 left. They kept the lead until Reid rained from three-point land again, this time from Horinek's pass. Reid later hit two free throws to take the lead again, 76-74, with 1:13 left.

"I was going to let him (Reid) shoot threes until he started to miss them," O'Connor said, "then I was going to put him down on the blocks and let him do damage there."

Seidl tried for three again, but Reid stuffed his attempt. Brewster got the ball and stalled. Quinter's Landon Johnson stopped the stall by hacking Arnberger, who made both his free throws. Brewster led by four, 78-74, with 50.3 seconds to go.

Then Seidl charged Reid. When Reid made the inbounds pass, he tried to go over the top of Quinter's defense. Instead, the ball struck one of the gym lights. Seidl scored from the following inbound play and Quinter was within one, 78-76.

After a time out, Seidl blocked Arnberger. Arnberger missed his first free throw, but made the second.

Quinter had a chance to get within one when Brewster's J.R. Baird blocked Heath Ostmeyer, but Ostmeyer missed both his free throws. As the teams fought for the rebound, Johnson held Horinek. Horinek made his free throws. Crumbaker stole the ball on Quinter's next possession and Brewster held the ball until time ran out.

Reid led all scorers with 31 points, including seven treys. Horinek finished with 17, Arnberger 15, Crumbaker 10 and Jamison eight. Jamison had seven rebounds and Horinek six.

Tilton led Quinter with 18 points. Look had 16, Seidl 12 and Ostmeyer 10. All but one of Seidl's points came in the fourth.

Brewster hosts Cheylin Friday and Tribune Saturday. Saturday's game is a make-up of Jan. 15's game, which was postponed by snow. Friday's girls varsity game tips off at 6:30 p.m. (Central Time), followed by the boys game at 8. Saturday's girls varsity tips off at 5:30 p.m. with the boys game at 7.

Bulldogs fourth at Dodge City tourney

The Brewster boys took fourth place in the 58th Annual Tournament of Champions at Dodge City.

This tournament is designed to bring top teams together, regardless of their size or classifications, pitting 1A schools against 6A schools and all classes in between.

Brewster was the smallest school again this year, but the boys played like they were one of the big ones.

Jay Reid was named to the all tournament team and also won the Individual Sportsmanship Trophy. The Bulldogs won the team sportsmanship award as well as the fourth place trophy. Bobby Tubbs was named to the all academic team and received a plaque. Ashley Stewart, one of the Brewster cheerleaders, was also named to the academic team.

Brewster vs. Dodge City
Brewster defeated Class 6A Dodge City in the fourth place game. Last year the 'Dawgs met Dodge for the third place spot, but lost by three points.

The Bulldogs jumped out to take a lead early, but Dodge came back and tied the game 12-12 at the end of the first quarter. In the second, Brewster steadily increased their edge while holding the home team scoreless. They took a 13-point lead to the locker room, 25-12.

In the third quarter, Brewster turned it up a notch and led by 20 points at one time, ending the quarter 43-26. The 'Dawgs played tough defense and never let Dodge City's run at the end get below a double digit lead. Brewster won 63-54.

Once again, Jay Reid led the Bulldogs with 20 points, 7 rebounds, 3 steals, and 4 assists while Arnberger tossed in 11 points, 7 steals, 3 assists, and 2 rebounds. The third player in double figures was P.J. Crumbaker with 10, 6 rebounds, 2 steals, and 2 assists in the game.

Clint Horinek and Justin Jamison each had 9 points. Horinek had 4 rebounds, 2 assists, and 1 steal while Jamison had 3 rebounds. J.R. Baird had 4 points and Bobby Tubbs, Rob Garner and Jacob Falcon all had important minutes for the Bulldogs.

Brewster vs. Medicine Lodge
On Friday, the Bulldogs met 3A Medicine Lodge, which also entered the tournament undefeated and were state-ranked in their division until their loss on Thursday to Wichita West.

The two teams matched up very well and at the end of the first quarter it was a tie game at 12-12. The Bulldogs never could find the touch from behind the arc, so they concentrated on their inside game. Medicine Lodge led 32-30 at the half, but the 'Dawgs came out fired up and at the end of the third quarter had taken a 38-35 lead. Brewster spread the offense out, took their time waiting for the open man under the

Chief's get new coach

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Terry Shea, former head coach at Rutgers, will coach the Kansas City Chiefs quarterbacks next season. His selection by new head coach Dick Vermeil was announced Tuesday by president and general manager Carl Peterson.

Shea resigned under fire after five losing seasons at Rutgers, where his teams were 3-8 last year and 0-7 in the Big East Conference. Over his five years the Scarlet Knights were 11-44.

Shea played quarterback for the University of Oregon and then spent two seasons, 1968 and 1969, as a graduate assistant coach there.
