

Cowgirls beat Oberlin

By Janet Craft
The Goodland Daily News

It was an exciting finish. After trailing for the whole game and then tying it at the end of regular time, the Goodland Cowgirls junior varsity beat the Oberlin Lady Red Devils 48-45 in a home game Friday.

Oberlin led in the first quarter with 7 points to Goodland's 4. In the second quarter, Goodland outscored Oberlin 14-12, which brought Goodland to within one point. Oberlin led at halftime 19-18.

During the third quarter, Oberlin scored 16 points to Goodland's 10, which made the score 35-28. However, in the last quarter, Goodland came from behind to score 11 points to Oberlin's 4, and tied the game at 39-39. Then in overtime, Goodland made 9 points to Oberlin's 6, making the Cowgirls the winners.

Anny McCoy was high scorer with 18 points. She made six field goals and six free throws. Hayley Jarmin scored 10 points with three field goals and four free throws.

Tess Schultz and Jessica Vignery each scored 6 points. Schultz made two field goals and two free throws and Vignery made three field goals.

Danielle Hellerud scored 4 points with two field goals. Kendra Billinger and Deanna Livengood each scored 2 points. Billinger made one field goal and Livengood made two free throws. Overall, the Cowgirls made 50 percent of their free throws.

Avalanche win 3-1 over Sharks

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Colorado forward Dave Reid wanted to apologize to Patrick Roy for the Avalanche's less-than-stellar effort in front of their star goaltender Tuesday night.

"Jeez, Patty, in the second period, we just left you out there to die," Reid said to Roy as they dressed following Colorado's 3-1 win over the San Jose Sharks. "Here, stop that one, Patty. Here, get this one."

Roy didn't seem to mind. He stopped 25 shots — including 12 in the second period — and Chris Drury scored the go-ahead goal as the Avalanche extended their unbeaten streak to 10 games.

"I think (Roy) was awesome tonight," said Sharks goalie Evgeni Nabokov, who had several gems among his 19 saves but couldn't match Roy. "He was the key to the game because we outplayed them, but he was there for them."

In a showdown between Western Conference powers, the Avalanche won their seventh straight game with a mixed offensive effort but stellar goaltending against the Sharks, who were riding high from consecutive road wins over Dallas and St. Louis. Colorado shook off two mediocre periods to score twice in the third.

"I was kind of expecting that kind of start from our team because we hadn't played in a couple of days," Roy said. "Luckily, we finally found a way to score two goals. We all believe we could still play better."

Shjon Podein and Ville Nieminen also scored for Colorado, which improved the NHL's best record to 35-8-8-1. The Avalanche also won at San Jose Arena for the second time in 10 days while picking up a point in their 16th consecutive game.

Colorado hasn't lost in regulation since Dec. 26.

Each team scored in the game's first 2:35, but neither had any offensive success again until the third period. The matchup of All-Star goalies Roy and Nabokov lived up to its potential, with both the NHL's career victories leader and the league's hottest rookie in top form.

Alex Korolyuk scored just 1:47 in for the Sharks, who are winless against Colorado in six straight games. They had their four-game unbeaten streak snapped on a tough night for their forwards, who controlled much of the game's flow but had numerous missed chances.

Owen Nolan's night mirrored the Sharks' frustrations. Roy stopped him on a breakaway chance in the first period and he misfired on a split-second shot at an open net in the second.

"They're so good, you can't make mistakes against them," Nolan said. "We worked hard enough to beat them, but a couple of mistakes turned the game around."

Until the third period, Colorado didn't play the dominant puck-possession style of hockey that has allowed the Avalanche to claim the league's best record.

San Jose had a strong second period that included several lengthy even-strength stays in Colorado's end, and only Roy's goaltending and several missed chances kept the game tied.

"There is not much margin for error (against Colorado)," Sharks coach Darryl Sutter said. "You don't get many scoring chances, and when you don't put them away, it makes it tough. We made two mistakes in the third, and they both ended up in the net."

Colorado broke through when Drury was left unchecked in the slot with 13:30 left, and Peter Forsberg found him with a slick pass. Drury fired a quick shot past Nabokov, who was screened.

"I was just hanging in the slot, and Peter made this great backhand pass," Drury said. "The puck practically stopped on my stick, it had such good touch on it."

Drury followed his 14th goal with an assist on Nieminen's goal with 6:12 minutes to play.

Notes: NHL scoring leader Joe Sakic's six-game points streak was snapped. Colorado had a goal waved off in the second period when Podein ran into Nabokov at about the same time the puck entered the net. Avalanche coach Bob Hartley pleaded with referees to check the video replay, to no avail.

After Thursday's game against Dallas, the Sharks embark on a brutal stretch of road games that lasts well into March.

All told, San Jose has just three home games in a 36-day span.

Nebraska ends losing streak

MANHATTAN (AP)—Almost exactly two years after it began, Nebraska's horrible road losing streak has ended.

Kimani Ffriend blocked two shots in the final 13 seconds and the Huskers held on for a 63-61 victory over Kansas State on Tuesday night, snapping their 18-game road losing skid.

"It's just a great relief and I have to give God all the glory tonight," said Ffriend, a 6-foot-11 center who had seven blocks for Nebraska (10-10, 3-4 Big 12).

"It's been two years since we had a road win and it's just been long and frustrating. Finally we got one. We made big plays in the second half and came together."

Nebraska, which hadn't won on the road since Feb. 10, 1999, took a 62-61 lead when Cookie Belcher, the NCAA's active steals leader, swiped the ball and fed John Robinson inside for an easy bucket.

"In the final minutes of the game, we just weren't the better team tonight," said Kansas State coach Jim Woolridge, who spent much of the night arguing with the way official Bill Kennedy was calling and not calling fouls in the post area.

"They were."

The Wildcats (8-10, 2-5) were just 7-of-27 in the second half while blowing an 8-point halftime lead.

"We just went cold," said Travis Reynolds, who had 14 points for Kansas State. "It wasn't that they were doing anything different."

Kansas State had three shots in the final 28.3 seconds. Phineas Atchison missed, but Steffon Bradford was called for traveling after grabbing the rebound and Kansas State rebounded again with 13 seconds to go.

Ffriend blocked Larry Reid's short jumper but the Wildcats retained possession and inbounded with 7.2 seconds left.

This time, Richie Terry drove inside but Ffriend swatted the ball away. With one second left, Ffriend made a free throw and the jubilant Huskers hugged and high-fived when the buzzer brought an official end to their long road skid.

Barry Collier, Nebraska's first-year head coach, said it's not fair to say his team had an 18-game road losing streak anyway.

"That streak has carried over from last year. It's not fair to put that on these guys," he said. "People don't realize how difficult it is to play on the road in the Big 12."

Belcher had 15 points for the Huskers while Ffriend had 12 points and 12 rebounds to go with his seven blocks. Reid had 18 points for Kansas State. Atchison, who had 28 points against Kansas last week, was scoreless the first half and wound up with 10.

Atchison's 3-pointer put Kansas State on top 43-36 with 5:17 left, then the Huskers went on a 13-0 run, capped by 3-pointers by Belcher and Kevin Augustine.

A few minutes later, the Huskers were leading by eight when Atchison climaxed an 8-0 run with a long 3-pointer that tied it 50-all. Reid was 4-for-4 from the foul line scoring 13 points in the first half, helping the Wildcats take a 36-28 halftime lead. Kansas State was gunning for its seventh straight victory over Nebraska.

area results

BOYS
Class 2A
1. St. Paul, 11-0. 2. Valley Falls, 12-0. 3. Pittsburg-Colgan, 10-2. 4. Quinter, 13-2. 5. Remington, 12-1.
Others rated: Northeast-Arma, 13-0, and Solomon, 10-1.

Class 1A
1. Brewster, 13-1. 2. Macksville, 13-0. 3. Midway-Denton, 14-1. 4. Argonia, 14-0. 5. White City, 13-1.
Others rated: Clifton-Clyde, 12-2, and Tribune, 12-2.

GIRLS
Class 3A
1. Southwestern Heights, 13-0. 2. Silver Lake, 12-1. 3. Conway Springs, 11-1. 4. Hesston, 11-1. 5. Oakley, 13-0.
Others rated: Imaculata, 10-1, Nemaha Valley, 11-1, and Russell, 13-1.

Class 2A
1. Osborne, 13-0. 2. Remington, 13-0. 3. Atwood, 14-0. 4. St. John, 10-1. 5. tie. St. Paul 12-0, and Wathena, 11-1.

Boys games Tuesday night
Quinter 70, Ellis 56
All others canceled or postponed due to weather.

Girls games Tuesday night
Quinter 51, Ellis 37
All others canceled or postponed due to weather.

Chiefs hire line coach

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Former Chiefs tackle Irv Eatman was hired Tuesday as an assistant offensive line coach for the team after holding the same job with the Steelers.

Eatman, who played in the NFL for 11 seasons, was assistant offensive line coach for Green Bay in 1999.

He'll work with new Kansas City coach Dick Vermeil, who won the Super Bowl with the St. Louis Rams last year.

Eatman played for the Chiefs for five seasons as an offensive tackle. He also played for the New York Jets, Los Angeles Rams, Atlanta Falcons and Houston Oilers before retiring after the 1996 season.

First National Bank

3x9

100%

In Back

Thursday Night Mixed League

Jan. 25, 2001

Sunwest Investments over Poor Country Folks 4-0

Bankwest of Kansas over Exit 17 3-1

Rain or Shine split with Rod & Suzie's Welding 2-2

Charlie's Angels over Mex & Company 4-0

Gutter Dusters over Our Team 4-0

Bowladium Lanes over McDonald's 3-1

Women's high game: Diana Nichols-233
Women's high series: Diana Nichols-579

Men's high game: Charlie Babcock-222
Men's high series: Dave Hovis-550

Team high game: Bowladium Lanes-848
Team high series: Sunwest Investments-2378

League Standings: No. 1 Sunwest Investments 25, 11; No. 2 Bankwest of Kansas 24, 12; No. 3 Charlie's Angels 23, 13.

Happy Our League
Jan. 25, 2001
Kanorado Coop over Hooker Seed 4-0

B&B Electric over Bowladium Lanes 4-0

Rasure's split with BOSS 2-2

Blind Team over AR Supply 3-1

Individual high game: Gene Becker-260
Individual high series: Charlie Babcock-677

Team high game: B&B Electric-882
Team high series: Kanorado Coop-2479

League Standings: No. 1 B&B Electric 33, 7; No. 2 BOSS 23, 17; No. 3 Bowladium Lanes 21, 19.

Tuesday Alibi League
Jan. 23, 2001

Blossom Shoppe over Ghost Team 4-0

Kanorado Collingwood over Shelter Insurance 4-0

Hitchcock over Northwinds Surveys 3-1

A Head of the Times split with Bumper Babes 2-2

High scratch game: Regina Mastin-194
High scratch series: Jeannie Pyles-580

High handicap game: Marsha McGillivray-232
High handicap series: Mary Keihl-620

Players added

HONOLULU (AP) — Philadelphia quarterback Donovan McNabb and St. Louis receiver Torry Holt were added Tuesday to the NFC roster for this weekend's Pro Bowl.

McNabb replaced St. Louis quarterback Kurt Warner, who has a concussion, and Holt replaced Rams teammate Isaac Bruce, who has injured ribs.

The Pro Bowl is scheduled for Sunday.

bowling results

Thursday Night Mixed League
Jan. 25, 2001

Sunwest Investments over Poor Country Folks 4-0

Bankwest of Kansas over Exit 17 3-1

Rain or Shine split with Rod & Suzie's Welding 2-2

Charlie's Angels over Mex & Company 4-0

Gutter Dusters over Our Team 4-0

Bowladium Lanes over McDonald's 3-1

Women's high game: Diana Nichols-233
Women's high series: Diana Nichols-579

Men's high game: Charlie Babcock-222
Men's high series: Dave Hovis-550

Team high game: Bowladium Lanes-848
Team high series: Sunwest Investments-2378

League Standings: No. 1 Sunwest Investments 25, 11; No. 2 Bankwest of Kansas 24, 12; No. 3 Charlie's Angels 23, 13.

Happy Our League
Jan. 25, 2001
Kanorado Coop over Hooker Seed 4-0

ENJOY TONIGHT AT THE MOVIES

Goodland Daily News

SUBSCRIBER

Ray Myers

You receive two free passes to see

What Women Want (PG-13)

Sherman
1203 MAIN - PHONE 869-8103

Present Ticket at Box Office
Tickets are Non-Transferable

Hays Med. Center

5x3

100%

In Back