

Brewster stomps Tribune

The Brewster Bulldogs hosted the Tribune Jackrabbits on Monday night after the game had been postponed three times due to the weather. The 'Dawgs came out on top, 60 - 46 in a very close contest.

Both teams entered the game without a league loss. The Bulldogs started slow on the offensive and defensive end of the court trailing Tribune 10-14 at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter the Bulldogs rallied to tie the game at 14-14, but Tribune came right back and at the half led Brewster 25-20.

Senior, Justin Jamison came alive in the third quarter scoring 10 points shooting 5 for 5 from the field with Jay Reid adding 8 points in the eight minute period.

Brewster picked up the tempo on both ends of the court adding more intensity in their defensive game. At the end of the third, the 'Dawgs led 43-31.

The fourth quarter, Crumbaker and Arnberger sat out for several minutes as both had been whistled for four fouls. The substitutes came in the game and did a great job giving valuable minutes to the Brewster squad.

Both teams continued to work hard with each one answering the other at the offensive end. The Bulldogs came out on top 60-46 in a very close and competitive game.

Brett Arnberger led Brewster with 19 points, four steals, two assists, and six rebounds in the game. Senior, Justin Jamison, scored 16 points, one steal, two assists, and grabbed three rebounds. Jay Reid had 11 points, one steal, four assists, and pulled down a team high eight rebounds.

Brewster's Brett Arnberger went high to take a shot during Monday's game against Tribune. Photo by Joan Jamison / The Goodland Daily News

Clint Horinek added 9 points, one steal, four assists, and four rebounds on the night. P.J. Crumbaker rounded out the starting five with 1 point, one steal, one assist, and two rebounds. J.R. Baird scored 2 points, one assist, and three rebounds while Rob Garner had 2 points and one rebound.

Brewster will travel to Weskan on Thursday with no girls junior varsity game and a full junior varsity boys game beginning at 5:00 Central Time with the varsity girls and boys game following.

Freshman battle Wray

The Cowboy freshman team battled from behind for most of the game Saturday against the Wray Eagles, but they did manage to tie the game in the third quarter before losing 43-36.

The Cowboys were behind 11-7 after the first quarter and down 23-15 at half time. When they came out for the second half the Cowboys seemed to catch fire as they outscored the Eagles 16-8 to tie the score at 31 all heading into the final quarter.

The third quarter scoring was led by Michael Larson who had 8 of the team's 16 points for the quarter and all his for the game.

Malcolm White and Jared Doke led the Cowboy scoring with 10 points each. White also had the two three-point baskets of the game with one in the first and one in the fourth quarter. Doke scored six points in the second quarter and then added a basket in each

bowling results

Tuesday Alibi League
Feb. 6, 2001
Shelter Insurance over Blossom Shoppe 4-0
A Head of the Times over Ghost Team 3-1
Northwinds Survey over Kanorado Collingwood 3-1
Hitchcock over Bumper Babes 3-1
High scratch game: Brandi Seeger-202
High scratch series: Jamie Baker-605
High handicap game: Mary Ann Mills—238
High handicap series: Avis Alcorn-619

Registered Polled Hereford Bulls
12-24 months, thick, stout bulls
EPD's available
Will feed until May 1.
Also Yearling Heifers
VJS Polled Herefords
Brian Staab
Evenings: 785-628-1102
Daytime: 785-625-5275

WEDEL
Red Angus
Association of America
Production Sale
Wednesday, Feb. 21
1 p.m. (CST) at the ranch
40 Bulls - 10 Heifers
Breed Leading
Sires include:
Holden Hi Ho 7151
Leland Robin Hood 6042
Glacier Rocky Mt Hi 836
Category 1A & 1B Red Angus
Contact us for more information:
WEDEL RED ANGUS
Frank and Susan Wedel
R.R. 1, Box 71
Leoti, KS 67861
Phone 316-375-2578
EADS, CO LEOTI, KS

Boys lose heartbreaker

By Roxie Yonkey
The Goodland Daily News

COLBY — Do you believe in miracles? So do I, but sometimes those miracles happen for the wrong team. Unlike Saturday night's miracle in Wray, the miracle Tuesday night in Colby went for the home team.

The Cowboys played probably their best game of the year, but couldn't sustain it in the game's final seconds. They fell in a heart-breaker, 50-48.

With 2:03 left in the third, Cowboy Aaron Gittinger found Luke Stone for a lay-up, cutting Colby's lead to 39-36. Colby stalled to get the quarter's last shot, but that backfired. They missed. Cowboys opened the fourth with back-to-back buckets from Luke Stone and Jeremy Stefan. Stone then hit a free throw and found Kris Rubio for a lay-up. Cowboys led by four, 43-39.

After Colby's Corey Woofter put back Justin Schwanke's miss, Stone found Stefan for three.

Colby's Zach Brown answered with a trey.

Goodland patiently worked the ball around until Stone found Matt Mentzer for a five-footer with 1:12 to go and leading 48-44.

Then Colby's Parker McKee hit a miracle shot, although he probably didn't think of it as that. Standing on the Trojan painted on the Colby Community Building's floor, he put up a three that found nothing but net. The shot was at least 30 feet out. McKee followed that with a score in the lane. Colby led, 49-48, with 30.9 seconds left.

Goodland lost the ball on Mentzer's travel with 13.1 seconds left. Forced to foul, Stefan reached around McKee. McKee flopped to the floor and Stefan was slapped with an intentional foul. McKee made his second free throw.

Stefan then held Colby's Ross Basnett. Basnett missed his free throw and Stone got the rebound. When Basnett shot, 10 seconds were left on the clock. For some reason, instead of pushing the ball up the floor as fast as he could, Stone held the ball. Goodland called time, which Coach Jon McLean really didn't want to do.

"That gave Colby the opportunity to set up their defense," he said. "We didn't want them to have that opportunity."

After the time out, Goodland had 5.7 seconds left to score. McLean moved Mentzer out to the near wing to give him the best opportunity to catch lightning in a bottle as he had at Wray.

McLean hoped for another buzzer-beater — from Mentzer or some other Cowboy — to repeat Saturday night's history.

Mentzer got the ball, but passed off to Rubio instead. Rubio didn't have enough time to release the ball before the buzzer went off. He shot anyway, but the ball fell off the rim.

"It was a great high school basketball game," McLean said, "and we came up a couple plays short. Our kids played great and it was nice to see Luke play with his old (early-season) form." McLean also had compliments for McKee. "He just made great plays for them; he was the difference-maker."

Stone led Goodland with 21 points, six rebounds, four steals and two blocked shots. Stefan scored seven. Mentzer six, Nate Thompson and Jordan Riebel five, Gittinger and Rubio two.

McKee finished with 26 points. Colby's Corey Woofter, hampered by an ankle injury, scored 10.

Goodland is 7-10 and Colby is 12-4.

Goodland hosts Hoxie Friday and makes up its game with Oakley Saturday. Girls varsity tips off at 5:30 p.m. Mountain Time both nights, with the boys game to follow.

Cowgirl loss to Eagles not changing standings

By Roxie Yonkey
Goodland Daily News

COLBY — Opening a game 0-7 from the field and shooting 18.2 percent for the first quarter won't win too many basketball games. Those numbers certainly didn't win Tuesday night's game. Goodland fell to Colby 55-44.

"When we got off to a start like that, some of the life went out of our girls," Cowgirl coach Connie Livengood said.

Many of those early misses came from point-blank range, which is more demoralizing than misses from far out.

By the time Goodland finally got on the board, on a Jara McKee lay-up from StevieLee Raymer, they were down 9-2 at 3:39 left in the first quarter.

Cowgirls didn't score for another three minutes. When McKee then hit from 12 feet, Goodland was down by 11, 15-4. At the end of one quarter, Cowgirls trailed 16-4.

In their two previous meetings this season, Goodland had forced Colby to run a half-court offense. Goodland was able to contain Colby that way. In this meeting, Colby was able to open up their offense, scoring on fast breaks before Goodland could get back on defense.

By the end of three, Colby led by 18, 50-32.

They had extended their lead to 20, but Cowgirl Lacey Brenner scored from 18 feet with 1.7 seconds left in the third.

Finally in the fourth, Goodland came alive. Cowgirl Jayci Stone put back Anny McCoy's miss, then McKee scored from the baseline.

Colby's Andrea Stephens made a pair of free throws from McKee's foul with 2:02 left, then the Cowgirls closed the game with a 6-0 run.

McKee hit two free throws, followed by Kendra Brack's lay-up and score in the lane.

"We just have to go on from here and win our next three games," Livengood said. Goodland's final three games of the regular season, against Hoxie, Oakley and Norton, are extremely important in the Cowgirls, sub-state future.

Goodland needs to win its last three to stay in the sub-state driver's seat. Goodland sits at 12-5, with Colby at 10-6. If Goodland and Colby's record are the same, Goodland would win the tie-breaker with a 2-1 record over Colby, but Livengood would rather the Cowgirls win their last three games to make sure that Colby neither ties Goodland nor has a better record. And winning the final three games would give Goodland positive momentum going into post-season.

Overall, Goodland has a 4-1 record over possible sub-state opponents.

This game does not count in Northwest Kansas League standings. Goodland won the game that did count in those standings.

McKee (12 points) and Brack (10) were both in double figures for Goodland.

Ashley Hallagin finished with six, all on treys. Stone, Brenner and Raymer scored four each. McCoy and Cody Pettibone each scored two.

Amanda Seeman led Colby with 16 points, followed by Ivy Ramsey's 12 and Andrea Stephens, 11.

Cowgirls host Hoxie Friday and travel to Oakley Saturday for a make-up game. Both tip off at 5:30 p.m. Mountain Time.

9th Annual High Plains Ag Expo

Thursday, February 15th • 9 a.m.-4 p.m. MT
Max Jones Fieldhouse, Goodland, Kan.

Sponsored by KLOE/KKCI/KWGB Radio
Co-Sponsored National Sunflower Association

Largest Ag show and speakers forum in Western Kansas and the Three State Area

Scheduled speakers to date:
Govenors Task Force on Water in Western Kansas
Lee Allison State Geologist for Kansas
Brad Lubben & Dan O'Brian-KSU Ag Economists
Representative National Sunflower Assoc.
Representative 21st Century Bean Alliance
Rich Hawkins-Aginfo Center Radio Network
Plus more...
Free Bean Feed at Noon, sponsored by
21st Century Bean Alliance and KLOE/KKCI/KWGB

Exhibitors for Hi-Plains Ag Expo 2001:

Shay Realty—St. Francis, KS
Rod's Welding—Winner, ND
J.C. Robinson Seed—McCook, NE
Goodland Greenline—Goodland, KS
NC Plus Hybrids—Atwood, KS
Collingwood Grain—Area
Frontier Equity—Goodland, KS
BankWest of Kansas
Eagle Cable TV—Goodland, KS
Schertz Grazer Sales—Winona, KS
Western State Bank—Goodland, KS
Mueller Grain—Goodland, KS
Farm Credit Services—Colby, KS
Outback Guidance Systems—Goodland, KS
Sigco Seeds—Goodland, KS
The Insurance Agency—Goodland, KS
Hayden Inc.—Goodland, KS
Hitchcock Inc.—Goodland, KS
Schilling Limousine—Edson, KS

Northern Sun—Goodland, KS
Custom Marketing—Burlington, CO
Servitech—Area
Red River Commodities—Colby, KS
Tom Simpson—Colby, KS
Freisen Seed Tenders—Colby, KS
American Communications—Goodland, KS
Topliff Seeds—Goodland, KS
Sherman County Farm Bureau—Goodland, KS
Monsanto—Colby, KS
Woofter Construction & Irrigation—Colby, KS
Cargil Seeds—Colby, KS
Yost Farm Supply—Goodland, KS
Pioneer Hybrid Seeds—Colby, KS
Neptune Chemical Pump Co.—Yuma, CO
Kansas Wheat Commission—Manhattan, KS
Seeds 2000—Colby, KS
Van Gogh Project—Goodland, KS
Sappa Creek Enterprises—Colby, KS

Athletes of the Week are:

This week's Athletes of the Week are Goodland's Jordan Riebel and Brewster's Clint Horinek. Riebel scored 14 points and brought down eight boards Saturday night against Wray Eagles. The Cowboy's won the overtime thriller. Horinek scored 25 points and leading rebounder against Oakley Plainsmen last week.

Buses are Welcome.

NEW!

Large Chili with Cheese Combo
with large fries
and medium drink, $3.99.

FREE Chili Refills on our Large Chili with Cheese Combo!

I-70 & Highway 27
Goodland

899-5948