The Brewster boys won their fourth Western Kansas Liberty League title by defeating the Weskan Coyotes on the road Thursday night.

This was a rescheduled game after the original date was postponed due to weather. The Bulldogs defeated the home team 78-54 to bring the league title home once again.

Brewster jumped out to a 9-2 lead, and at one time led 20-9, but Weskan battled back to within six points before the end of the first quarter.

With 5 seconds on the clock, P.J. Crumbaker threw the ball to Jay Reid at the top of the circle, who then drove for the basket and dished off to Brett Arnberger on the left wing. He drained a trey at the buzzer to give the Bulldogs the 23-14 lead.

The second quarter was more of the same, with Brewster extending its lead by tossing in 19 points while Weskan added 18, giving the Bulldogs a 10-point lead at half time, 42-32.

Brewster's defense took over in the third quarter, with the 'Dawgs only allowing Weskan 8 points. On the offensive end, Brewster was patient and looked for the good shot and the boys increased their lead 56-40 at the end of three.

In the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs continued to steadily build their lead as they defeated the Coyotes 78- 54 and finish undefeated in league play.

Senior Reid led Brewster with 24 points, four steals, seven assists, and five rebounds in the game. Clint Horinek scored 17 points, five steals, had one assist, and grabbed seven rebounds.

Arnberger tossed in 15 points, picked up five steals, four assists, and pulled down seven rebounds. Justin Jamison put 15 points in the scorebook along with two steals, one assist, and eight rebounds.

Crumbaker rounded out the first five stats with 7 points, one steal, and dished out two assists. Brewster shot 53 percent from the field and 61 percent from the charity stripe.

Goodland's Tinker Keck played a key roll Saturday as the Los Angeles Xtreme managed a second straight win on a last second field goal against the Las Vegas Outlaws, 12-9. The score was set up by an interception and return by Keck (23), who returned the errant pass to the Las Vegas 41 with under two minutes remaining. Keck played the whole game on special teams and the last five minutes as free safety, when he got the interception. He expects to play at 1 p.m. Mountain Time Sunday when the Xtreme host the Memphis Maniax. The game will be televised on UPN.

Stock car star killed at Daytona

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Dale Earnhardt, the greatest stock car star of his era, was killed in a crash on the last turn of the last lap of the Daytona 500 as he tried to protect Michael Waltrip's victory.

The 49-year-old driver had to be cut from his battered car and was taken to Halifax Medical Center, where he was pronounced dead of head injuries.

The accident happened a half-mile from the finish of the NASCAR season-opener as Earnhardt's newest driver, Waltrip, and son Dale Earnhardt Jr. were in front racing toward what should have been the most triumphant moment in the brief history of Dale Earnhardt Inc.

Earnhardt, a master of super-speedway racing, was fighting for third place, leading a tightly bunched five-car pack heading through the final turn. The back left corner of his famed black No. 3 Chevrolet was bumped by Sterling Marlin.

Earnhardt's car fishtailed slightly and briefly slid to its left, down toward the infield, before suddenly swinging back to the right and cutting across traffic at a sharp angle. He clipped Ken Schrader, whose yellow Pontiac carried both cars hard into the concrete wall headfirst at about 180 mph.
