Farmers need to report changes

Farmers need to report any change in the ownership of their operation that would affect the status for federal programs by June 1.

The method, known as the "Designation by Landowner" provision, must be requested and requires all sellers and buyers agree by signing the reconstitution request, or by providing a memorandum of understanding that includes signatures of all sellers and buyers.

The designation may be used when:

- Part of the farm is sold or ownership is transferred.
- An entire farm is sold to two or more persons.
- Farm ownership is transferred to two or more persons.
