

Rockies lose exhibition, 6-5

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Denny Neagle allowed eight hits and five runs in four innings in the Colorado Rockies' 6-5 exhibition loss to the Anaheim Angels on Wednesday.

Neagle, who left the world champion New York Yankees to sign a free-agent contract with Colorado, gave up only two earned runs in nine innings in his first three spring appearances.

"It took me past the first inning to get loose," Neagle said. "I couldn't hit my spots. Every good pitch I threw, they managed to get a good part of the bat on it. Every bad pitch I made, they made me pay. I'm not pleased with this."

Neagle complained of some stiffness in his throwing shoulder, but said that it was normal for him and nothing to worry about.

Anaheim had a four-run first, with Garret Anderson hitting an RBI double, Bengie Molina adding a run-scoring single, and Jamie Burke hitting a two-run double. Kimera Bartee hit a leadoff homer in the second.

Adam Melhuse hit a two-run homer in the fourth to help the Rockies tie it at 5.

Justin Baughman broke the tie with a two-out single off Cam Esslinger in the eighth.

Jose Canseco was a last-second scratch from the Angels' lineup. Canseco, who missed the past four games because of lower back pain, felt tightness in his right hamstring.

"I'm concerned long-term," Angels' manager Mike Scioscia said. "I don't think it's anything we haven't talked about. He hasn't been able to get to where he needs to be. We've just got to get over the hump. Hopefully, it's just a little bump in the road."

Kansas City beats Reds with back-to-back doubles

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Former Reds outfielder Jon Nunnally drove in two runs as the Kansas City Royals used a four-run seventh inning to beat Cincinnati 4-2 Wednesday night.

After Rey Sanchez singled in a run off of Dennys Reyes, Nunnally doubled home two runs and scored on a Carlos Febles single. Pete Harnisch, scheduled to be the Reds opening day starter, pitched six shutout innings. Harnisch allowed four hits and extended his scoreless inning streak to 14 1-3 innings.

The Reds took a 1-0 lead in the first when Pokey Reese singled and Ken Griffey Jr. drove him in with a double. Back-to-back doubles by Sean Casey and Alex Ochoa gave the Reds a 2-0 lead in the third.

Griffey will not travel with the team to Thursday's game against the Rangers and his former Seattle teammate Alex Rodriguez. It's the third time the teams have played this spring and the two players have not played against each other ... Dmitri Young was scratched from Thursday's game due to a sore shoulder.

Nuggets cap third quarter with spinning 30-foot shot

DENVER (AP) — Nick Van Exel scored 18 of his season-high 37 points in the third quarter, capping it with a spinning 30-footer, as the Denver Nuggets beat the Indiana Pacers 95-83 Wednesday night.

Raef LaFrentz added 22 points and 14 rebounds to help the Nuggets end a six-year, 10-game losing streak to Indiana. The Pacers had not lost to Denver since March 31, 1995.

Jermaine O'Neal led the Pacers with 22 points and 13 rebounds as Indiana tried to rebound from a triple-overtime loss at Houston 24 hours earlier.

Indiana has lost seven of eight and leads the Boston Celtics by just a half-game for the final playoff spot in the East.

Despite their expected fatigue, the Pacers stayed close until Van Exel changed the momentum late in the third quarter.

With the game tied at 62, Van Exel hit his fourth 3-pointer of the game and then made an incredible shot that ranks as one of the NBA's best this season.

Guarded by Travis Best along the right sideline, Van Exel jumped with his back to the basket and did a 180-degree spin as he released the ball. He fell to the floor as the ball dropped through the net, and he added to the drama by laying on the court in self-astonishment.

The Nuggets followed with a 15-6 run to open the fourth quarter, and the Pacers never got closer than eight in the game's final five minutes.

Denver kept Indiana at bay with impressive outside shooting. The Nuggets hit 9 of 13 3-pointers in the second half. Van Exel finished 7-for-10 from behind the arc.

Van Exel picked up his offense as the Nuggets played without All-Star forward Antonio McDyess for the fourth time in five games.
