The High Plains Museum in Goodland will have a large display of alumni photos during this summer’s school reunion. Pictures of class members or school days are still needed from the ’50s, ’60s, ’70s, ’80s and ’90s. Photos will be scanned and promptly returned. A 1970s exhibit is also planned, but the museum doesn’t have items from that time period. So, if you have something you would be willing to loan to the museum, it would be appreciated. Please bring photos and items to the museum as soon as possible, so they can be prepared. You may call the museum at 899-4595 or stop by.

Couple married in Colorado Springs

Lisa and Rick Carlson

Lisa Butler and Rick Carlson were married at 1 p.m. on Aug. 12 at the East United Methodist Church in Colorado Springs. The Rev. Larry Paulson officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry M. Butler of Goodland. The groom’s parents are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Carlson of Colorado Springs.
The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a white satin short-sleeved gown with a sweetheart neckline and full-length tulle skirt with a sweep train. The bodice consisted of an open heart-shaped back with pearl beads and iridescent sequins and a satin bow attached to the waist.
Her handmade veil was trimmed with white satin and attached to a headpiece adorned with pearl beads and white silk flowers. She carried a bouquet of large white roses accented with purple and lavender flowers, satin ribbon, green ivy and gypsophila.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with a long cutaway jacket, gray vest and white handmade tie. His boutonniere was a white rose accented with silver leaves and a purple rosebud.
Matron of honor was Lila Whitmore, sister of the bride. She wore a purple satin mid-length dress with a purple lace bodice and a satin bow attached to the waist. She carried a bouquet of small white roses, accented with purple and lavender flowers, satin ribbon, silver beads and gypsophila.

Flower girl was Sarah Whitmore, niece of the bride. She wore a white satin dress with a purple lace overlay, trimmed with purple flowers and satin ribbon. She carried a white wicker basket of purple, lavender and white flowers.

Best man was Dennis Carlson, brother of the groom. He wore a black tuxedo with a short jacket, gray vest and purple handmade tie.
Ring bearer was Logan Whitmore, nephew of the bride. He wore a black tuxedo and carried a handmade white satin, heart-shaped pillow with white lace.

Guest book attendant was MiKayla Henry, niece of the bride. She greeted guests and passed out ceremony programs.
Ushers were Matthew Whitmore and Travis Henry, nephews of the bride.

correction

In Thursday’s issue of The Goodland Daily News, in the band conductor story on page 3, it was incorrectly stated that Roger Sebby was to critique the junior high vocal solo and ensemble performances, instead he critiqued the instrumental solo and ensemble performances. This mistake was due to a reporting error.

The Goodland Daily News will correct any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at (785) 899-2338 to report errors. We believe that news should be fair and factual. We want to keep an accurate record and appreciate you calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.

Candlelighters were MiKayla Henry, Travis Henry and Matthew Whitmore.

The father of the groom recited a special reading called “The Art of Marriage.”

The organist was Janice Mitchell, friend of the couple. She played the “Bridal Chorus” and “The Wedding March.” Lila Whitmore, vocalist, sang “Grow Old With Me,” “The Wedding Song (There is Love)” and “From This Moment On.”

The couple drove a 1930 Ford Model A from the church to the reception. The reception and dance were held at the Sons of Norway Lodge in Colorado Springs.

Buffet and cake servers were Anne Swett and Diane Garzaniti, friends of the bride.

Out-of-town guests were Leonard and Mary Elliott and Kenny, Connie and Andrea Grieve, all of Goodland; Kim and Carol Colby and family of Assaria; Margery Schultz, Clarence Hahn, Harold Mattison, Sr., Harold and Lynn Mattison, Greg and Jean Carlson, Margea Schultz and Janet Eddy, all of Wisconsin.

The couple took a honeymoon cruise to the Eastern Caribbean and are now living in Peyton, Colo. The bride works for Compaq Computer Corp. The groom is self-employed.
