The High Plains Museum in Goodland will have a large display of alumni photos during this summer's school reunion. Pictures of class members or school days are still needed from the '50s, '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s. Photos will be scanned and promptly returned. A 1970s exhibit is also planned, but the museum doesn't have items from that time period. So, if you have something you would be willing to loan to the museum, it would be appreciated. Please bring photos and items to the museum as soon as possible, so they can be prepared. You may call the museum at 899-4595 or stop by.

Couple plan June wedding

March weather was mixture of cool and warm days

The last week of March was certainly a mixture of weather. We had sunshine, cloudy skies, cool mornings, warm afternoons, wind, thunder, lightning and some showers. If you didn't like one part of the day, it would change later. The last time I saw the weather report on TV, the forecasters were giving our area credit for 56 of moisture for March. The shower that one afternoon was good for the lawns and other growing plants. I only wish it might have been more. I really didn't care for those little white pearls that fell for a few seconds, but it was just enough to remind one of what is to come.

I found many of my usual callers were out of town for spring break with their kids. It was a good week for the most part for them to be on the go.

Jim and Sheri Mull have a new granddaughter, Bailey Rene, She's the daughter of Derek and Renee Mull, who live in the Kansas City area. Jim and Sheri, along with Jim's mom, Dorothy Boardman, spent spring break visiting their son's family. Their other granddaughter, Ariel, spent her spring break here with her grandparents, the Mulls and Jean Smith, and a special friend, Amanda Amthor. Ariel went back home with the Mulls last week. All went well. They had a good time and as usual came home somewhat tired.

Another new resident in our local neighborhood is Jade Artzer, the daughter of Jason and Kim Artzer, who was born over the weekend. Mom and daughter should be home by the time you read this. She has a brother Cole at home to welcome her. Her grandparents are Don and Raenita Artzer and aunt, Gail Artzer, all of Goodland.

Congratulations to both the Mulls and Artzers on the arrival of their new daughters

corrections

The Goodland Daily News mistakenly reported in an article titled "Television crews jam phones, city streets" in Tuesday's edition that Don McKenzie is the KBSL sales manager. Don Newell is the sales manager and he provided the information stated. This was a reporting error.

In the same article, Judi Vignery's name was misspelled. This also was a reporting error.
