with his homework. The next night, we were at Lansing and had an honest-to-goodness rain shower, when we came out of the Prison Fellowship.

The next day, we went to Bennington, and had a great time at Brian and Michele's, our son and daughter-in-law's, home. Roger was able to play catch with Samuel and Michele, Hannah and I went shopping. On Sunday, we spent the day at Brian's and were joined by Barry and Kim, another son and his wife, and their children.

Also, our son, Brooke, came by with his friend, Kim, and her son, Patrick. It is nice to know that our daughter-in-laws are such wonderful cooks and it was just a great time for us. Our grandson, Andrew, is doing tremendous, and we are so happy that he is doing great. We will know in a few months whether he will have to have heart surgery, but he is growing by leaps and bounds, so we are hopeful.

Anyway, Roger's pitching arm has recovered, so he'll be ready for more catch when the kids visit again. We got home on Monday afternoon and the dogs acted like they were as happy as we were. Now, we are looking forward to the next trip!

There is a garage sale getting ready to start in a few minutes, so I'm going to put on my "speedy" shoes and go over to Hunter Hall and see what "bargains" I need. Hope you all have a wonderful Easter and we'll see you next time.

Mobile home park to re-open

HUTCHINSON (AP) — The Big Chief Mobile Home Park, closed since January's natural gas explosion that claimed two lives, will re-open on Friday.

Owner Robert Kinder says the facility will now be a recreational vehicle and senior citizens mobile home park for people 55 and older. Those who have mobile homes in the park will be "grandfathered in," allowing them to stay even if they don't meet the age restrictions.

The facility has been closed since the Jan. 18 explosion that fatally injured John and Mary Ann Hahn. That explosion came a day after another one that destroyed two business in downtown Hutchinson.

The explosions were traced to natural gas that leaked from a storage field seven miles from Hutchinson and made its way under the ground to the city. The leak caused gas geysers to erupt around Hutchinson.

On Tuesday, Hutchinson police continued to provide security at the mobile home park and Kansas Gas Service vehicles also could be seen on the premises.

"They may be doing a leak survey," said Kansas Gas Service spokesman Conrad Koehler.

People asked to pray for rapid return of U.S. crew

There are lots of events coming up, but we want to pause and take the time to pray for the situation in China and for the rapid return of our people. The Vignery family is being prayed for, as well as all the families of those who are waiting for news of their loved ones.

Coleen Crumrine attended her uncle's funeral service, in Pampa, Texas, on Monday. John Norris was the brother of Coleen's mother, Rae Pfalser. Following the service, Coleen went to Dumas, Texas, where she spent the night with her aunt and uncle, Wanda and Kenneth Fagan. She returned to Brewster on Tuesday afternoon.

On Easter Sunday, April 15, there will be a Community Sunrise Service. Everyone is to meet at the Methodist Church and carpool to a country location. If the weather is bad, the service will be held in the church, and there will be a continental breakfast following it.

The "55 and Alive" program is getting closer. It will be necessary to attend from 10 a.m. to noon and from 2 to 4 p.m. on Tuesday, April 17, and Wednesday, April 18. We have several people signed up, but there is room for more. This program will be held at the Brewster Senior Center and Kathy Hapke will be the instructor. As I said before, we all need to know more about how to avoid "road rage," for one thing. Anyone that has taken a trip or gone to a large city is vulnerable. Also, there are many medications that have an effect on our driving, so be sure to attend. This program is sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons.

Wednesday, April 18, is the date set aside for the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program Awards and Recognition Banquet, to be held at the American Legion Building in Colby. Laura Wethington, program coordinator, will present another enjoyable evening. So be sure to get your reservation in. I will forward them on to her, but I need to do this pretty quickly.
