Goalie helps Avs to win in series

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Colorado Avalanche goalie Patrick Roy seems to own the Los Angeles Kings at playoff time. Eight years after his Stanley Cup MVP performance in Montreal's five-game victory over the Kings, Roy has recorded two shutout in three games against Los Angeles, including a 3-0 win Wednesday night. The Avalanche's 35-year-old goalie beat Los Angeles 2-0 last Saturday and is the main reason Colorado is up 3-1 in the best-of-seven Western Conference semifinal.

"He's amazing. He likes the challenge in the playoffs; that's what he lives for," said Colorado defenseman Rob Blake, acquired from Los Angeles two months ago. Roy, who made several dazzling saves as the Kings stormed the Colorado net for 10 shots in the opening period, extended his NHL record to 17 playoff shutouts. Colorado coach Bob Hartley, who has seen Roy perform his stick-and-glove magic for years, was still awed. "Unbelievable is the only word. Patrick put on a performance very few goalies in this league are able to do," Hartley said.

Stiles spending most of time in gym

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Jackie Stiles has a new job and a new city, which is roughly 750 times the size of Claflin, Kan. She hasn't had much time to explore her surroundings, however. As usual, she's spent much of her time inside a basketball gym. Stiles was the star attraction Wednesday as the WNBA's Portland Fire opened training camp. The leading scorer in women's college history patiently answered questions for nearly two hours, but she showed the familiar down-home charm that made her a national sensation during the NCAA tournament. "I'm just in awe," she said. "I cannot believe that all of this is happening to me, but it's a credit to so many people that I've had surrounding me. They know I have to come in here and earn it like everybody else does, and I have to prove myself. The media and the fans maybe have that high expectation, like I can come in here and do what I did in college, and I know realistically that's not going to happen. I have to do the things that got me here, and that's work ethic." Linda Hargrove, Portland's coach and general manager, deadpanned that Stiles probably will just squeak by when final roster cuts are made.

A $25 Doctor Visit Wouldn't Hurt A Bit

Wouldn't it be nice to know that when you visited the doctor, it could only cost you $25? With National Travelers Life Company's Preferred Provider Plan, if you choose one of the participating hospitals or doctors in your area, the savings can be significant.

Here's how you can save by using our network providers:

Doctor Office Visits You pay $25, we pay 100% of the balance up to $300 of eligible expenses per visit.	Prescription Drugs You pay $8 for generic or $16 for name brand, we pay 100% of the balance.	Surgery and Hospitalization You pay your deductible and 20% co-insurance of the first $5,000, we pay 100% up to $3 million.
