IN MEMORY

In Memory of Clarence Hallagin Husband, Father, Grandfather, Great-Grandfather

Summer on the farm just wasn't quite the same; The boss was gone, they carried on and still the harvest came. We often thought of you this year as we cheered Kels Ash, and Saul You were always a proud Grandpa as you watched the kids play ball. We miss your humor and advise, we hold your memory dear; Hard work and prayer are helpful as are family who are near. Last May we asked for comfort from our Father up above; Your son's voice rose with song at your service filled with love. Cards and plants and caring friends were comforting, of course; We must accept that 'true' comfort comes from another source. We miss you!
