

Pettibone signs letter of intent

Cody Pettibone, a senior at Goodland High School, signed a national letter of intent in April to play softball at Colby Community College next year.

She played shortstop for the Sweet Thunder softball team for four years. "Cody is an outstanding player," said Carl Adams, head softball coach at the college. "She has a strong arm, great speed and hits the ball very hard. We are very pleased she will be playing at Colby Community College next year. She can play any position and help us up the middle or in either corner."

Pettibone has also participated in track and basketball in high school. She has been a state qualifier in track and was on the girls basketball team which won the Class 4A sub-state championship this year.

She is the daughter of Greg and Sally Pettibone of Kanorado.

Cowgirl Cody Pettibone finished fourth in the 200 meter dash on Monday at Colby. Her time was 27.6 seconds.

Ruptured spleen ices Avs player

DENVER (AP) — In the icy world of slashing, cross-checking and high-sticking, injuries are an accepted job hazard.

Severed arteries. Debilitating concussions. Dislocated shoulders. All part of life from the very first slap shot on the frozen pond. But a ruptured spleen? "It's something you never hear about," Colorado Avalanche defenseman Rob Blake said. Blake and the Avs learned Thursday that All-Star teammate Peter Forsberg will miss the rest of the playoffs after having surgery to remove his ruptured spleen and stem internal bleeding. Forsberg, who led the Avalanche with four goals and 10 assists in 11 playoff games, is expected to make a full recovery.
