THANK YOU

I would like to thank the following people for everything they have done for me before and after my surgery. First and foremost Scott Schrollor for all he has done to make sure I have a job, and coming to get me out of the hospital in February and the raisers. Second my Wal-Mart family. You know who you are. Tim and Rhonda, Neal and Stacy, and Kim Gonzolas for all and everything you have done. Dr. Griego and Brenda for putting up with me and the support you gave me, everyone who said prayers and wished me luck. Last but not least, Speed for putting up with my fears and moods not to mention being there during and after surgery. I couldn't have done it without you babe! Also thanks to anyone I may have missed! Susan Siruta

A man wakes up in the morning after sleeping on an advertised bed, in advertised pajamas. He will bathe in an advertised tub, wash with advertised soap, shave with an advertised shaving cream, eat a breakfast of advertised juice, cereal and toast (toasted in an advertised toaster), put on advertised clothes, and glance at his advertised watch. He will ride to work in an advertised car, sit at an advertised desk and write with an advertised pen. Yet this man hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising doesn't pay. Finally, when his unadvertised business fails, he will advertise it for sale.
