today in history

July 18, 1901 — Ed Cole was arrested by Sheriff Walker and Marshall Schell on a warrant sworn out by Nellie Thompson charging him with assault and battery. Cole went to the home of Mrs. Lizzie Thompson but was ordered away by Mrs. Thompson's daughter, Nellie. He refused to go and Miss Thompson attempted to drive him away with a broomstick, when Cole seized and choked her. Cole plead not guilty but when put on the witness stand, he testified to his own guilt. Justice Cuthbertson assessed a fine of $20 and costs and the prisoner was committed to jail in default of payment. Cole served 30 days in the county jail last spring for fighting with Louis Cullins at a dance. From The Goodland Republic/Information provided by The Sherman County Historical Society

Couple celebrates 25th

The children of Ken and Debbie Griffith would like you to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary with a card shower.

Debra Louise Imhof and Kenneth Ray Griffith were joined in marriage Sunday, July 18, 1976, at the Goodland Emmanuel Lutheran Church, with Rev. Albert F. Jungmeyer officiating.

The parents of the couple are the late Irving Imhof of Brewster, and Minnie Belle Imhof-Jones of Goodland; and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Griffith of Phillipsburg.

The bride chose a floor length gown of polyester crepe fashioned in an A-line. The gown featured a V-neckline and long sheer sleeves that gathered into cuffs at the wrists. A train of polyester bordered with pink and white lace fell from the waist. The neckline, cuffs and empire waistline were trimmed with pink and white lace. Her hair piece was of white ribbon roses entwined with white netting. She carried a bouquet of white ribbon roses and white and pink netting.

The maid of honor was Julie Patten, friend of the bride. She wore an A-line gown of pink polyester crepe with a scooped neckline and short gathered sleeves. The waistline was trimmed with a silver appliqué centered with pearls, forming a draping bow in the back. She carried a bouquet of pink ribbon roses accented with pink netting. The best man, Barry R. Miller, former brother-in-law of the groom, and groom wore suits. Stephanie (Curtin) Weaver, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Logan Jones, nephew of the bride and Toby Griffith, brother of the groom were the candlelighters. Bob Lister, friend of the bride, and Dick Bock, cousin of the groom, served as ushers. Shari (Daniels) Boiko, niece of the bride was at the guest book. Lynette Mines, friend of the bride, accompanied the bride's sister, Diana Jones as she sang, "My Sweet Lady" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. Debra Thomas, sister of the groom, dipped the punch and Pricilla Daniels, sister of the bride, made and served the cake. Kamela Jones, niece of the bride, was their assistant. The bride and groom opened their gifts and Christina (Curtin) Knight, niece of the bride, was the ribbon pillow stuffer.

The bride was to be a senior at the Goodland Christian School and was and still is employed at the Goodland Regional Medical Center. The groom is a graduate of Phillipsburg High School and was with the Department of Transportation in Goodland.

Cards can be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Griffith at 2291 Walnut, Goodland Kan. 67735.
