today in history

Aug. 8, 1901 The time for the Physicians of the state of Kansas to register under the new medical law expired July 22. The physicians who do not hold diplomas from reputable medical colleges must now pass examinations before they will be granted a certificate by the board. All physicians in the state who do not hold a certificate from the state board on Sept. 1 must discontinue practicing. From The Goodland Republic/Information provided by The Sherman County Historical Society.

If you have information about crime, call the Goodland Area Crime Stoppers “Look Line” at 899-5665. Your call will be confidential. If the information you give results in the arrest, you could be eligible for a reward of up to $1,000. The Goodland Area Crime Stoppers is a nonprofit organization formed by citizens against crime.

correction

A story about the Goodland City Commission adopting next year’s budget in the Aug. 7 Goodland Daily News said that City Manager Ron Pickman’s salary is $59,112. His salary is $69,152. The error was due to incorrect information given to the newspaper.

In the same story, it was reported that Mr. Pickman said Steever Water Park used 300,000 gallons of water; it has used 500,000 gallons. Also, it was Mayor Tom Rohr who responded to Sheryl Linden’s suggestion to raise sales taxes, not Ron Pickman. These were reporting errors.
