Congratulations to the winners in the sheep competition!

Northwest Kansas District Free Fair winners in sheep and lamb classes

Ana McClung and her brother Jonathan McClung (left) tied for Grand Champion in the Rate of Gain competition.

Intermediate Grand Champion in sheep showmanship was Candice Meissinger and Intermediate Reserve Champion was Derrick Raymer (below).

Several photos in the Northwest Kansas District Fair results section published in Friday's Goodland Daily News were misidentified because of wrong information.

On the front page, the boy with the pig is Jason Cowan, who was a class champion in swine.
