today in history

Sept. 17, 1901: WAS IT AN ELOPEMENT? Ross Herron and Mrs. Myrtle Howland leave for Denver Monday night - Ross Herron, the 20 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herron, began to pay marked attention to Mrs. Howland, who is said to be a widow, when she came to Goodland in June, stopping at the boarding house kept by Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Herron. It is learned at the Rock Island ticket office that they bought two tickets for Denver. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Herron knew of their departure until Tuesday morning (when) a note was found in the room occupied by Ross.

Card shower planned to celebrate 100 years

Clara James, who farmed with her husband Jessie near Kanorado for many years, will be 100 years old on Friday, Oct. 5.

Jessie and Clara retired from their cattle and farming operation and moved to Denver. They had a daughter, Arlene, who graduated from Sherman County High School in 1939.

Clara's sister was Fern Cowan of Goodland and her brother, Rueben Rhoades, lives in Burlington, Colo. Her brother in law, Lowell Cowan, still lives here.

Library to expand classical and Spanish collections

The Goodland Public Library has received a $500 grant from the Kansas Library Network Board through the 2001 Interlibrary Loan Development Program.

Librarian Janet Warren said the grant will be used to purchase classic literature and recommended reading titles on audio and video cassette to update and expand the current collection. Having additional materials available will save time for library users, she said, and will enhance the Goodland library's contribution to the statewide interlibrary loan network.

Interlibrary loan is a statewide cooperative service that permits people to borrow materials from libraries across the state. To qualify for Interlibrary Loan Development Program grants, a library agrees to make materials in their collections available for loan. Proposals are funded on the basis of their potential to improve the statewide interlibrary loan network. Sixty libraries submitted a total of seventy-eight grant proposals, and the Network Board approved 69 for more than $90,000.

The library also recently received a $2,500 grant for Spanish-language materials. The money will be used to add to the three Goodland elementary school libraries, the Grant Junior High library and the main library.

Warren and Marcia Smith are coordinators for the Special Populations Grant from the state library. The grant will supplement a $500 Special Populations Grant received last year by the Goodland library. With this grant, the library added 36 books, seven audio cassettes and six video cassettes.
