

Cowboys lose homecoming

After having tied the game in the second quarter and keeping the state-ranked Atwood Buffaloes to 13 points in the first half, the Goodland Cowboys suffered a heartbreaking 40-7 loss in Friday's homecoming game.

The highlight of the evening was a pre-game performance by the University of Kansas Marching Jayhawk Pep Band. A standing-room-only crowd was on hand for the special performance.

Half-time featured the crowning of Jessica Vignery as homecoming queen and Brian Bahe as king. Lacey Brenner and Brian Mai were the first attendants and Danielle Hellerud and David Russell were the second attendants.

The queen's mother, Judy Vignery, presented the Tanya Armstrong/Cook Memorial Scholarship to Jessica. It is awarded annually to the homecoming queen.

Atwood opened the first quarter with a touchdown and the extra point, making the score 7-0, but Goodland pulled together and made some excellent plays to keep the Buffs at bay.

The Buffaloes had the ball at Goodland's seven yard line on the fourth down and decided to go for the touchdown. The Cowboy defense held the Buffaloes with an incomplete pass, forcing Atwood to turn the ball over on downs.

The second quarter began with Atwood having possession, but the Cowboys contained them, forcing the Buffs to turn the ball over on downs again. Goodland was not able to get the first down and had to punt. The Cowboys failed to advance on their next possession as well, turning the ball over on a fumble.

The next Cowboy possession didn't seem to be going any better with an incomplete pass on the first down and an errant pass by Jared Doke into the stands on the second. But Doke threw a pass to Sean Greenlee on the third down that was right on target, and Greenlee ran it into the end zone. Touchdown Cowboys!

The extra point made it a tie game with 5:05 to go in the half.

Atwood regained the lead on the next play, but the Cowboys made them earn it, stopping the Buffaloes on the five yard line and holding them there until the third down. Atwood failed on the two-point conversion, making the score 13-7.

Goodland was unable to score on their final two possessions of the half, and the score remained 13-7.

The Cowboys had the first possession in the third quarter but was unable to get the first down and had to punt. Atwood promptly scored a touchdown, setting the tone for the second half.

The Buffaloes scored three more touchdowns while the Cowboys spent a lot of time in their own territory. The final score was 40-7.

Greenlee led the Cowboys in rushing with 13 carries for 33 yards, and Kris Rubio had one carry for 6 yards.

Doke threw 12 complete passes in 25 attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown. Greenlee led the team in receiving catching five passes for 58 yards and one touchdown. Andrew Melia caught six passes for 50 yards.

Buffaloes run over Jayhawks

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — When he took the Colorado job in 1999, Gary Barnett said one of his top priorities was to upgrade an almost nonexistent running game.

It appears his Buffaloes, who stam-peded over a third straight opponent, have arrived.

Colorado has rushed for 315, 263 and 338 yards in its last three games, the latter helping spark a 27-16 win over Kansas on Saturday.

The Buffs trailed 16-13 early in the fourth quarter before Craig Ochs led them to two touchdowns.

Colorado (3-1, 1-0 Big 12) went ahead when Ochs, who sat out the first three series of the second half because of a concussion and blurred vision, drove the Buffaloes 86 yards in 11 plays, capping the drive with a 17-yard scoring pass to tight end Daniel Graham with 11:04 left.

Moments later, Kansas' Curtis Ansel shanked a punt that traveled only 14 yards, and Chris Brown bolted 40 yards up the middle on the next play with 9:08 remaining.

Kansas freshman Johnny Beck, who earlier kicked a 59-yard field goal, converted a 46-yarder early in the final period to put the Jayhawks (1-2, 0-1 Big 12) in front for the final time.

Determined to run the ball in the second half, Colorado had 246 of its 338 yards rushing after intermission. In total offense, the Buffs outgained the Jayhawks 289-76 after intermission.

Brown ran for 140 yards, including 85 in the final period. Cortlen Johnson had all of his 113 yards rushing in the third period, when Colorado outgained the Jayhawks 122-32.

Wildcat off to good start; K-State wins big at home

MANHATTAN (AP) — Kansas State's 64-0 victory over New Mexico State someday may be remembered not as the day Josh Scobey scored four touchdowns, but as the debut of Darren Sproles.

Reminding people of Barry Sanders, the Wildcat freshman entered the game when its outcome was safely in hand. Then he ran 11 yards to the 1-yard line and scored on the next play. Overall, he had four carries for 49 yards and a touchdown.

His average of 12.3 yards per carry was about what many have expected of the Olathe, Kan., product. Then he went to the sideline with an injury that coach Bill Snyder said was not serious.

"Darren Sproles... is a player to be reckoned with," said Kansas State offensive coordinator Ron Hudson.

Junk Parade a success with community support the landfill about 4:30 p.m.

Curt Way, county public works manager, said he hadn't had time Monday morning to figure out how much trash the Junk Parade had brought in, but said it was the most he's seen gathered by a public effort.

The floats formed a line extending from the transfer station, and some volunteers waited up to three hours before they could unload. No one was impatient.

"This is the easy part," said Linda Goodwin, Schyler Goodwin's mother. "The hard part was the loading."

Linda and Dale Goodwin, who own Bankwest where Schyler works, said they're proud of their son for organizing the event, but added that it took the whole town to make it a success.

"This is what happens when everyone works together," Linda Goodwin said.

Schyler Goodwin, who is working with the corporation on other community projects, thanked everyone who helped and said he's noticed a difference.

"You drive around town and it seems a little cleaner," he said. "There's just a little less junk."

He said many people suggested the corporation have another parade in the spring. There will be another Junk Parade, he said, but members have to talk about when.

People who watched the parade said they hope it becomes an annual thing.

"I think it's the best thing this town has ever done," said Alice Hoppe, who has lived in Goodland for 30 years. She said many older people don't have the resources to clean junk out of their yards.

"I hope they keep it up," she said.
