obituaries

Vera Fern Dallas

Longtime Goodland resident Vera Fern Dallas, 86, died Thursday, Oct. 18, 2001, at the Goodland Regional Medical Center where she had been a patient for the past 25 days.

She was born March 1, 1915, in Dumont, Iowa, the second of 10 children of Arthur and Laura (Marble) Kennedy. She attended schools in Nebraska and Iowa. She married John Dallas in Goodland on April 19, 1938. They lived in the Edson and Goodland communities. John Dallas died on Feb. 26, 1972.

According to her wishes her remains will be cremated and private family services will be held at a later date.

Surviving are four daughters, Irene Wise of Lakewood, Colo., Shirley Wise of Liberty, Tenn., Mary Leoffler of Burlington and Joyce Sanderson of Goodland; 12 grandchildren; 24 great grandchildren; and one sister, Ruth Hobson of Torrington, Wyo.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, one daughter Joan Dallas and two grandsons, Donald and Ronald Wise.

The family requests memorial contributions in her name be made to the department of nursing at the Goodland Regional Medical Center and may be left at the First National Bank or Bateman Funeral Home, P.O. Box 278, Goodland, Kan. 67735.

Bateman Funeral Home of Goodland is in charge of arrangements.

John J. Hogue

Former Goodland resident John J. Hogue, 68, died Wednesday, October 17, 2001, in Denver.

He was born March 23, 1933.

Graveside services will be at 2 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 23, at the Goodland Cemetery with Father Daryl Olmstead officiating.

Full details will be in Monday's edition.

Memorials may be given to Special Olympics and may be left at Koons Funeral Home, 211 N. Main, Goodland, Kan. 57735-1555.

He died on Thursday, Oct. 4, 2001, after a short illness. He was born on October 15, 1909.

Cards may be sent to his daughter, Barbara L. Robinson, 18436 Section Circle, Covina, Calif. 91722.

Broadway comes to Colby

Faust meets professional baseball in a Broadway classic from the creators of “Pajama Game.” The national touring company of the hit musical comedy, “Damn Yankees” will appear at the Colby High School Auditorium at 2 p.m. Central Time on Sunday, Oct. 21.

Middle-aged baseball fanatic Joe Boyd trades his soul to the Devil (the charming but devious Mr. Applegate) for a chance to lead his favorite team to victory in the pennant race against the New York Yankees. As young baseball sensation Joe Hardy, he transforms the hapless Washington Senators into a winning team, only to realize the true worth of the life (and wife) he's left behind. With the help of a handy escape clause and a guilt-ridden temptress named Lola, Joe outsmarts Applegate, returns to his former self and shepherds the Senators to the World Series.

Light, fast paced and devilishly clever, Damn Yankees is a home run whose all-American subject matter and irreverent sense of humor have brought many a sports fan into the theatre.

Admission will be by Western Plains Arts Association season tickets on adults' $15, and students, $8 at the door. This program is presented in part by the Kansas Arts Commission, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

Claims worker here Thursday

Jody Tubbs, of the Kansas Commission on Veterans' Affairs, will be in Goodland from 1 until 2:15 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Thursday, Nov. 1, in the Assembly Room, on the third floor of the Sherman County courthouse, to assist veterans and their dependents with Veterans Administration claims work.

If you are unable to contact Ms. Tubbs in Goodland, you may contact the office in Colby any Monday, Wednesday, or Friday. That phone number is 785-462-3572.
