

Cowboys end football season

By Sharon Corcoran

The Goodland Daily News
The Goodland Cowboys ended a tough football season with an 0-9 record after losing to the Scott City Beavers 40-0 Thursday.
The Cowboy defense dug in in the first quarter, keeping the Beavers scoreless and going into the second quarter with a 0-0 game.
But the next quarter was a different story, as the Beavers scored four touchdowns, one of them with help from a Cowboy turnover.
Scott City got their first touchdown with 9:47 to go in the half and made the extra point 7-0. Less than two minutes later, they intercepted a Goodland pass, setting up the Beavers' second touchdown.
A 48-yard touchdown run put the Beavers up by 20-0 with 3:30 to go in the half. The Cowboys blocked the extra point. A 15-yard touchdown pass put Scott City up 26-0, which was the score at half-time.

In the third quarter, a blocked punt gave Scott City the ball at the Cowboys' five and set up the fifth Beaver touchdown, making the score 33-0 with 4:19 to go in the third. The Beavers scored their final touchdown after an interception gave them possession. A 43-yard touchdown run and the extra point put the Beavers up 40-0 with 5:43 to go in the game.
Scott City won District 16 with a 7-2 record and will go on to the Bi-District game. The Cowboys played some tough opponents this season in Class 5A Hays High, Scott City and St. Francis, which go on to play in the postseason, and Atwood, which just missed post season play by losing to St. Francis 20-5 on Thursday.
The game Thursday was the finale of high school football for seniors Andrew Melia, Kyle Winston, Bryan Mai, Sean Greenlee, David Russell, Brandon Nemechek and Max Saint.

Avalanche defeat Vancouver

DENVER (AP) — Eric Messier and Dan Hinote scored deflection goals barely two minutes apart in the second period, and the Colorado Avalanche, despite being outshot 28-16, beat the Vancouver Canucks 4-1 on Thursday night.
Avalanche backup goalie David Aebischer, starting his second straight game while Patrick Roy rested a sore hip, lost a shutout when Brendan Morrison scored at 15:17 of the third period.
Aebischer, who lost to the Canucks 4-0 on Oct. 13, had 27 saves.
Canucks starting goalie Dan Cloutier allowed three goals on just seven shots. Martin Brochu replaced him and had eight saves.
Vancouver outshot Colorado 7-3 in the first period, but Colorado's Milan Hejduk had the only goal.
On the Avalanche's first shot of the game, Hejduk took a pass from along the boards from Alex Tanguay and scored on a backhand from the slot at 9:06.
Messier made it 2-0 early in the second period. Messier outmaneuvered Ed Jovanovski in front of the net and deflected Stephane Yelle's shot past Cloutier at 1:48.
Hinote scored on a similar deflection of Rob Blake's shot at 3:51, and Cloutier departed.

Special bowlers win awards

The Golden West Achievers came away from the West Area Bowling Tournament with four awards for first place, four for second place, four for third place and one for fourth.
Golden West also had a first, a second, and a third-place team at the Unified Bowling Tournament in Burlington on Friday.
Over 50 bowlers competed at the Colby Bowl on Oct. 13 for the West Area Special Olympics Kansas and were assigned lanes with similar scoring averages. The Goodland team competed with teams from Colby, Scott City, Atwood, Hill City, Hoxie and WaKeeney.
Chet Hatfield won first with game scores of 115 and 108 and a 112 average. Renda Nemechek won first for her 95 average, while Mary Jo Gensil won first with game scores of 95 and 129 and a 112 average. Virgil Leak won first with game scores of 88 and 53 and a 70 average.

Jack Roberts earned second place with game scores of 81 and 97 and an 89 average. Susan Colby took second with scores of 84 and 79 and an 82 average and received the award for inspirational bowling for the first session.
Second place awards also went to Ann Wright for her 81 average and Mike Stock who had scores of 36 and 67 and a 51 average.
Third place awards went to Michelle Elliott with a 77 average, Derek Moreland with game scores of 66 and 83 and a 75 average and David Roberts with game scores of 79 and 79 and a 79 average.
Roberts won the inspirational bowling award for the second session.
The Burlington tournament consisted of unified teams from Goodland as well as Burlington, Yuma and Julesburg, Colo. The unified teams consist of two Special Olympic athletes and two other athletes.

The first-place team was Steph Yarbrough with a handicap score of 518; Dennis Daise with 697; Dan Dorn, Special Olympics, with 655; and Colby, Special Olympics, with 659. The team score was 2529.
Derek Moreland, Special Olympics, led the second place team with a score of 600 and was helped by David Roberts, Special Olympics, with 571; Sammy Valles with 577; and Avelia Valles with 573. They combined for a team score of 2,344.
Jack Roberts, Special Olympics, led the third place team with 670 and was helped by Chet Hatfield, Special Olympics, with 552; Mali Durland with 580; and Julie Christians with 524. Their team score was 2326.

Colts' bad start doesn't count now

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — After combining for 34 yards in a miserable first quarter, Peyton Manning and Edgerrin James proved once again it's not how you start, it's how you finish that counts.
Manning, 3-of-9 in a scoreless, punchless first period, regained his touch to go 19-of-30 for 201 yards and two touchdowns as the Indianapolis Colts snapped a three-game losing streak with a 35-28 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs on Thursday night.
James had just 21 yards to show for his first 10 carries, then exploded for 81 in his next 17. He went to the sideline with a strained knee with 4:24 left after getting up and walking off the field under his own power.
Dominic Rhodes had an 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the third quarter. Then, with 1:02 left and the Colts trying to run out the clock, Rhodes broke loose on a 77-yard touchdown run for a 35-21 lead with 4:45 to go.
Manning's 47-yard touchdown pass to Marvin Harrison put the Colts (3-3) on top 28-14 with 8:21 left. The Chiefs (1-6) got within 28-21 on Larry Parker's 11-yard touchdown reception and moved downfield for a third-and-10 from the 11. But Idrees Bashir intercepted a pass by Trent Green in the end zone as the Chiefs lost their fourth straight and dropped to 0-4 at home for the first time in 25 years.

Mike Vanderjagt kicked two field goals for the Colts, who beat the Chiefs for the sixth straight time.
The Chiefs' last TD came on Green's 5-yard pass to Parker with 1:02 remaining.
Originally scheduled for Sunday, the game was moved up so the NFL could avoid a possible conflict with the World Series on a Sunday night game.

Red Sox requesting bids on team

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox said Thursday they are preparing to request binding bids from potential buyers.
Last week all bidders submitted detailed plans about how they would financially manage the team. The bidders also were required to identify the member of their ownership group who will be recognized by major league baseball as the team's representative.
To be able to make final submissions, bidders were given information about the team's finances and facilities. They also met with Red Sox CEO John Harrington.

"This is a very significant milestone and after we analyze the extensive information we have received, we will move forward to the binding bids phase," said Justin Morreale, lawyer for the Yawkey Trust.
The trust announced a year ago that it would sell its 53 percent share of the team, which is valued at up to $400 million.
The team has refused to reveal the bidders, but seven potential bidders have been identified in media reports.
The newest phase of the sale has two objectives: to provide bidders with the information they need to prepare their final bids; and for the bidders to provide detailed financial information so the Yawkey Trust and major league baseball can assess the bidder's ability to complete the process and assume ownership of the team.

Net proceeds from the sale will go to the Yawkey Foundation, a charitable organization.
