today in history

Oct. 29, 1901: Only a fair audience was present at the Opera House to hear the concert given by Petrowitch Bis-sing, violinist, and Anna Beatrice Harts, vocalist, but they were treated to a program of refined music throughout rendered in an excellent manner. That the audience was almost entirely made up of the music loving was shown by the enthusiasm greeting each number and the response to numerous encores.

Esther Brown

Esther Brown, 92, a lifetime resident of Sherman and Thomas counties, died Thursday, Oct. 18, 2001 at Citizens Medical Center in Colby.

She was born May 16, 1909, to Byron E. and Vertie M. (Tovrea) Lister in northeast Sherman County. She and her four siblings were all born in a homestead sod house, where the family resided for many years. She graduated from Brewster High School.

She married Leslie G. Brown on Sept. 12, 1928. Together they survived the Dust Bowl years and many other hardships while establishing a family farm northeast of Brewster. She lived on this farmstead until age 91, when she moved to the Prairie Senior Living Complex in Colby.

She was an avid quilter and long time member of the TOB Craft Club of Brewster enjoying meeting with friends and doing craft projects.

Services were held Saturday, Oct. 27, at the Brewster United Methodist Church with Pastor Dorine Chambers officiating. Burial was at the Brewster Cemetery.

She is survived by four children, Donna J. (James B.) Vohs of Wellington, Janis J. (Thomas L.) Fraser of Tucson, Ariz., Richard A. (Lynette) Brown of Brewster and James L. (Neysa) Brown of Holyrood; nine grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1976, her two brothers, and two sisters.

Memorial contributions may be made to Brewster Heritage Center, and be left at the Sunflower bank, the Brewster bank, or the chapel. Kersenbrock Funeral Chapel handled the arrangements.
