TREAT YOURSELF TO A SAFE HALLOWEEN

Remember these simple safety rules:

1
2
3
4
5

Don't trick-or-treat alone! Always go in groups, and younger children should always be accompanied by an adult.

Beware of confining costumes! Avoid masks that obstruct vision and costumes that restrict movement.

Be visible! Carry a flashlight, and apply reflective strips to your costume, so drivers can see you at night.

Do not enter! Only accept treats outside the front door—never go inside a stranger's house or car for any reason.

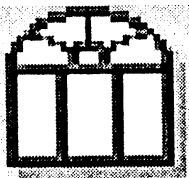

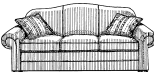

No eating! Discard any unwrapped or suspicious-looking candy. Have parents inspect all food before eating.

Happy Halloween
