Budget gloom continues in Topeka

receive any news Thursday from revenue collection figures to lessen the gloom hovering around budget discus-

According to preliminary figures, the state collected $28.6 million less in tax revenues than anticipated from July 1 through Oct. 31. The figures were released by State Budget Director Duane Goossen.

They did contain a little good news: Sales tax collections were short of estimates by less than $1 million. Goossen acknowledged the gap could have next year to craft the state budget.

TOPEKA (AP) — The state didn't been much worse, given the slumping national economy especially since the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks.

However, individual income tax collections fell almost $18 million short of expectations and corporate income taxes, $21.3 million short. Mineral severance tax collections were short about $4.5 million.

The revenue estimates were drafted in April. State officials, including Goossen, and university economists, plan to meet at 1:30 p.m. Friday to draft new ones which legislators will use

Ordinance would restrict trucks parking on streets

The Goodland City Commission will vote on an ordinance regulating parking of large trucks on city streets and hear a proclamation from the hospice volunteers at its meeting at 5 p.m. Monday.

The commission approved an ordinance prohibiting heavy trucks from parking in city-owned lots and restricting the hours they could be parked in those lots at the Oct. 1 meeting. The commission is now considering a similar ordinance restricting parking on streets.

The commissioners were concerned about the damage caused by heavy vehicles such as semi-trailer trucks being parked on the streets for prolonged periods.

Two vehicles stolen, one recovered

the county.

Two vehicles were stolen from the owners' workplaces in Goodland on Tuesday, in incidents Police Chief Ray Smee said were not connected.

A sheriff's deputy found one in Kanorado on Wednesday.

Police reports said the first vehicle Donald "Buddy" Dean William Jr.'s 1987 Honda, valued at $1,000, was stolen about 5:30 a.m. at the Frontier Equity Exchange grain elevator, 1202 W. Hwy. 24, where William works.

Chief Smee said the car or person who stole it have not been found.

Steven Goodman's 1991 Chevrolet pickup, valued at $7,000, was stolen between 4 and 5:30 p.m. at Rasure Lumber Do-It Center, 605 Caldwell Ave. Lance Goodman, Steve's son who drives the pickup, works at Rasure

Stephanie Jo Darby

On August 20, 1969 Stephanie Jo Darby entered this world at Boothroy Memorial Hospital in Goodland, Kan. into the arms of her parents John and Phyllis Darby

She attended school in Goodland, graduating from Goodland High School with the Class of 1987. She went to Garden City Jr. College and graduated with an Associate Degree in Business in 1989. She moved back to Goodland and worked for a few years before returning to Hays to continue her education in 1993. During this time she worked for the City/County Recreation, Miller's Electronics, and Davis Brothers.

While attending Fort Hays State University she was employed with Holiday Inn. Since May of 1995 she has been a credit analyst and executive assistant at A-1 Plank and Scaffold Mfg. Over the last six years she became an integral part of the A-1 family, and what started as a job became her lifetime career. A-1 recognizes her commitment and loyalty to A-1 and the Allenbaugh family.

Her interest through the years included singing, playing the piano, and dance. She shared her great love and gift of her music with community events, Senior Center and nursing homes as well adored these babies from the moment as private functions. She auditioned for they were born and was continuously in-"You Can Be a Star," in Nashville in 1988. It was a dream come true for Stephanie. Her music was a great inspiration and comfort to Stephanie and forever will continue to bring comfort and inspiration to all of those who hear her.

Other interests included competitive sports. Starting at an early age with little league softball, swim team, and tennis. She received many medals and trophies for her accomplishments on the swim team. She felt great personal reward from the position she held on the girl's softball teams that went to Nationals in Georgia and Florida. She also played tennis for the Garden City Juco Team.

Starting at age 12 Stephanie became an avid bowler, and continued until this last season. She enjoyed the city and state tournaments usually placing in both. She also socially enjoyed darts and billiards. As a little girl she enjoyed playing cards with her grandparents and loved Bingo with her grandma.

Stephanie was always looking for new adventures. She traveled throughout the United States and the World. A new favorite in the last few years was Las Vegas. She loved the bright lights, the shows, the beautiful new hotels (having stayed at most of them), and the game of chance. She especially loved Disney of California and Florida. She is probably the only Kansan with an annual pass to the Disney Park. Because of her generous nature, she included family and friends to share her joy at the Blake, Goodland, Kan. Lois and place she loved so much. She had just returned home from a 10 day Princess Cruise to Canada and the New England States. It was not uncommon for her to go somewhere every month (of course mixing business with pleasure).

Her love of country music extended into listening as well as performing. She attended numerous concerts and had the opportunity to meet several country stars that she admired.

Having mentioned all of this, her most precious treasure was her family. She always had a special place in her heart for her grandparents and Great-Grandma Weldy. She always made an effort to spend time nurturing the relationship to maintain the strong bond between them.

'Auntie's Lovey-Girl", and Darby will always be her "Little Man". They will forever love her "OOOOOOOH Much."

As a daughter, God couldn't have blessed us with a more precious gift. She brought so much to our lives in all she was and did. She loved life and all it had to offer. She had goals and dreams and always did what she had to, to make them reality. Most importantly she shared her dreams with us and gave so much to all around without asking much in return. She is not only a wonderful daughter, but also the greatest of friends. We talked with our daughter daily, even when traveling and always ended each conversation with "I love you OOOOOOH much." We look forward to the promise of seeing her again.

She was deeply loved by many friends and family. She will be greatly missed by two very special friends Jennifer Allenbaugh and Kandyce Kloeckner. They shared hopes, dreams, travels, and special times together.

She is survived by her parents, John and Phyllis Darby, Goodland, her sister, Brandi Seeger and brother-in-law Don Seeger of Goodland; niece, Katlyn and nephew, Darby, and grandparents Howard and Doris Darby of Garden City. She is also survived by several aunts and uncles: Carol and Wayne Locke, Mustang, Okla., Jan and Dave Barnett, Yukon, Okla., Elda and Eugene Howard Canfield, Little America, Wyo., Erv and Rita Elfman, Goodland, Ralph and Marilyn Elfman, Goodland, Avis and Jim Alcorn, Goodland, Audrey and Collin Huthansel, Goodland. And many cousins. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Ervin and Beatrice Elfman, her great-grandparents and cousin, David Elfman.

She was separated from this life on earth and cremated on Oct. 23, 2001 in Wichita. The Memorial Service will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 7, 2001 at 11:00 a.m. (MT), at the United Methodist Church in Goodland.

Memorials may be made to the Katlyn and Darby Seeger Memorial Fund c/o P.O. Box 419, Goodland, KS. 67735, or At age six she welcomed her sister to the Western State Bank,
