

K-State loses to Huskers

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska's game against Kansas State was expected to be for the Big 12 North championship.

As it turns out, it was only a preliminary round.

The second-ranked Cornhuskers beat the Wildcats 31-21 Saturday to stay on top of the North, but Nebraska still needs to beat Colorado (8-2, 6-1) Nov. 23 to advance to the conference title game.

A loss at Colorado would mean no Big 12 title game Dec. 1 and would seriously hamper Nebraska's hopes for the national championship.

Although Kansas State (4-5, 2-5) has slipped from the top of the division, the Wildcats came about as close as anybody has to stopping the Huskers this year.

Texas beats Jayhawks

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas has been sitting still in the Bowl Championship Series standings for a couple of weeks now, and Chris Simms thinks it's time the Longhorns move up.

"Right now, I will say we're the best team in the country," he said after Saturday's 59-0 win over Kansas.

"We're going out and saying, 'Let's see how bad we can scorch 'em.' We've got a definite swagger going on."

Strong defense helps Jets over K.C.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — A strong defense and dependable running game are the keys to late-season success in the NFL. The New York Jets showed both Sunday in routing the Kansas City Chiefs 27-7.

Curtis Martin, the NFL's top rusher, ran for 113 yards and three touchdowns.

He also moved into 16th place on the career rushing list with 8,671 yards, passing Hall of Famer Jim Taylor.

The Jets (6-3) also had three interceptions and a fumble recovery in winning their third straight. They showed all the elements a team needs on a blustery, chilly day in manhandling the Chiefs (2-7).

For Chiefs coach Dick Vermeil, it was a disappointing reunion with one of his proteges. It was Vermeil who signed undrafted cornerback Herman Edwards in 1977 for the Philadelphia Eagles. Edwards is now the Jets coach.

Broncos win at home 26-16

DENVER (AP) — Eyeing a wounded San Diego defense, Brian Griese showed no mercy.

Griese threw two touchdown passes just 39 seconds apart late in the first half, and the Denver Broncos overcame moments of generosity in the second half to beat the Chargers 26-16 on Sunday.

Denver (5-4), moving into a second-place tie with San Diego (5-4) in the AFC West, capitalized on a sprained left knee sustained by San Diego's leading tackler, safety Rodney Harrison, and injuries to linebacker Orlando Ruff (stinger) and cornerback Alex Molden (left ankle).

The Broncos built a 26-3 lead midway through the third quarter. San Diego rallied with a long touchdown pass and a fumble recovery for a touchdown, but Doug Flutie subsequently threw three interceptions.

Jason Elam kicked four field goals for the Broncos, who took a 20-0 halftime lead on Griese's two TD throws — in the final 1:07 of the first half.

Both passes were to tight ends as Denver was short-handed at wide receiver when Eddie Kennison was declared inactive for the game after reportedly telling coach Mike Shanahan he was retiring.

Receiver Scottie Montgomery was sidelined with a twisted left knee in the first half.

The Broncos marched 62 yards on their first possession for Elam's 25-yard field goal.

Early in the second quarter, Rod Smith turned a short pass into a 32-yard gain, setting up Elam's 29-yarder.
