today in history

November 23, 1901: TOLD IN A LINE: A new dance for the winter is heralded as the “Roosevelt Reel.”

At all seasons of the year, five o’clock in the morning is the coldest hour of the 24.

At least this will be one winter where the venerable story about the farmers in Kansas using corn for fuel will not appear in print.

It is reported that the life of a Philadelphia man was saved by the $30,000 roll of bills in his pocket from which a bullet was deflected. Wealth is not without its advantages.

Perry and Jan Lohr in 2001

Couple together after 25 years

Jan and Perry Lohr will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on Nov. 27, 2001.

They were married at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Goodland in 1976.

Jan is the daughter of Sam and Betty Rethman and is the loan operations officer at First National Bank. Perry, son of the late Kenny and Joyce Lohr, is a corrections officer at the Kit Carson County Correctional Center.

Their children, Justin and Sasha Lohr, invite friends and neighbors to send cards and good wishes to 6335 County Road 17, Goodland.

Apology given for incorrect name

The first thing I want to do this week is apologize to Ruth and Duane Jones for mistaking the name of their new granddaughter. The little miss is named Alexandria Rose Blank, which is a very pretty name, and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Blank, and granddaughter of Mike and Monna Rose Blank, all of Eglin, Texas.

I am very sorry for the error, and really don’t know where it the name Alexandria Danielle came from. But we happy that she is doing well, and I am sure her sister, April, is helping take good care of her by now.

Roger and I both went to the clinic with symptoms of colds. Roger had his for a few days, and I just started having a little congestion, but I wanted to make sure it did not get any worse. We have big plans for the weekend, and we don’t want anything to slow down the time with kids and grandkids.

I imagine there are several families who planned on having some quality time and goods eat this week, and we hope all of you had the most blessed Thanksgiving ever. There is much to be thankful for and many that need to be remembered in prayer, because their families may not be able to join together, on earth, again.

Our sympathy is sent to Olive Thiel on the loss of her sister, Margaret Burk, on Nov. 20. George and Roberta will be heading for Texas soon, due to the death of George’s sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Luckert. Also, Inace Parker’s daughter-in-law, Sandi Parker and Merle, are remembered at this time, on the death of Sandi’s father.

Bob Schroeder is a patient in Denver, and we hope that he is feeling better. Christine Weed reports that Kenny is feeling good again, and that, of course, was good to hear.

Hunting season seems to be off to a quiet start, and from what we hear, there isn’t much activity in the fields.

Lots of people have said they have seen more deer than pheasants this year. But while the men were trekking through the fields, the ladies were checking out the latest craft items at Carolyn’s Craft Peddler. It’s hard to believe how many things can be made out of ribbon, beads, wheat, clay, and all other sorts of supplies that line the shelves, baskets, displays, and hooks in the shop. There is an abundance of patriotic products that will let all know how we feel about our country.

Oh, yes, did I mention that it really smells nice, too? There is a hint of spice, spring and flowers all blending pleasantly throughout the store, plus more colors than one would believe possible. But don’t take my word for it, stop and see for yourself. It will make you feel like Christmas is coming!

I want to thank al the ladies and the gentleman who helped the bake sale turn out to be a great success. It was for the carpet fund for the Senior Center. There were so many goodies. I know that there were many treats saved for Thanksgiving feasts. I also would like to thank all the folks who came in and bought and were so generous with their donations. We will form a committee at the next Senior Center meeting to start looking for carpet, and also a little carpentry which needs done. So, annual meeting of the Brewster Senior Center, and it will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 2. we hope to see the members join us so they can see how we are doing.

Our first Christmas card came on Monday from a friend in Texas. I don’t know if he is really early, or maybe, he’s finally getting around to last year’s list. I have been thinking of making our list a little shorter this year, to cut down on the headaches of the postal service. On the other hand, they talk like they need our support, so it seems like a “coin toss” situation.

This has been a year of many new experiences, and I surely hope that things are going to stabilize soon. I am very proud of our country, our president, our military, and I have much respect for the (former) mayor of New York City.

Next week, I hope to have lots of reports about visits, visitors, and I am sure I will have a story or two about my grandkids. You can let me know about your family--, and I will write about them, too.

Happy Thanksgiving to my brother and family, Smitty and Kay Smith, and to my sister and family, Harriet and Thurl Demaree. Also to Make and Paula Kear; Denise and Doug Hilty, etc., etc., etc. I love you all! See you all next time.

Goodland girl weds college coach

Michele Ralee Hallagin of Goodland and Joshua Michael Ivans of Lamoni, Iowa, were married June 2, 2001, at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Goodland.

Don Ivans and the Rev. Scott Grimshaw officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride’s parents are Rollie and Jean Hallagin of Goodland.

The matron of honor was Angie Brumbaugh, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaid was Sarah Larson of Paso Robles, Calif.

The groom’s parents are Don and Marilyn Ivans of Lamoni.

The best man was Pat Ivans of Independence, Mo., and the groomsmen were Shane Adams and Jason Trachsel of Olathe, Chad McDole of Kansas City, Mike Stowell of Lenexa, and Brett Talcott of Overland Park. The honor attendant was Leanne Hayfors, late sister of the groom.

Mary Votapka of Jennings and Blanche Hallagin of Goodland, grandmothers of the bride, were honored guests.

The bride was given away by her parents.

She wore a formal gown of white satin. The bodice was accented by jeweled lace. The neckline was square in front and rounded low in back. The full skirt with semi-cathedral train had jeweled lace trim with four jeweled lace strands down the back.

A reception and dance were held at the Goodland Elks Lodge.

The bride graduated from Goodland High School and Wichita State University. She is currently completing her master’s degree in physical therapy at the University of Kansas Medical Center.

The groom graduated from Hart High School in Newhall, Calif., and Graceland College in Lamoni. He is an assistant volleyball coach at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Okla., where the couple plans to live.
