Kansas Day celebration set

The 73rd annual Kansas Day celebration is scheduled for Tuesday at the Bird City American Legion Hall. The doors will open at 9 a.m. for display set ups and registration will begin at 10 a.m.

A potluck luncheon is scheduled to begin at 11:30 with music provided by the Singing Seniors.

In keeping with this year's theme, "Flags of the Free," table displays with a patriotic emphasis are requested. Other historical displays are welcome.

The program begins at 12:30 p.m. Entertainments will be by the St. Francis third grade students; the Cheylin fourth grade students; and the St. Francis High School speech class. Election of Kansas Day Association officers for Kansas Day 2003 will be held and the annual Memorial Tribute given.

An original playlet, written by Helene (Magley) Landenberger, Kansas Day president, will be a highlight of the day's festivities.

Kansas Day celebrations are public observances. Everyone is encouraged to bring a potluck dish, provide a display and join the crowd as they celebrate and honor the 141st anniversary of Kansas statehood.

Windsong to perform in Sharon Springs

Windsong of Colorado will give a performance of Sweet Adelines-style music at 6:30 p.m. Mountain Time on Saturday at the Sharon Springs High School Auditorium.

They will present "Prairie Patchwork — Pigs, Pies and Preachers," an original production filled with music and comedy.

The group from Sterling, Colo., has been performing in four-part harmony for 30 years. Under the direction of Neala Carmichael, the 35-voice women's chorus has won many regional honors.

Windsong will be joined by the Centennial State Chorus out of Sterling under the direction of Dr. Curtis Kimball.

Also appearing will be former district champions, the U.S. Male Quartet, and three Windsong quartets: Sterling Silver, Just 4 Fun and KC Connection.

club news

Lincoln Larks

On Jan. 8, five members of the Lincoln Larks Family and Community and Education Cub met for their monthly meeting at the home of Arbutus Toppliff. There were two guests, Terri Owens and Olive Taylor.

Roll call was answered by naming favorite places to eat. Reports were given and everyone was encouraged to attend Health Fair 2002 from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday at the Goodland Activities Center.

Two books will be placed in the library in memory of Mac Been: "For Everything a Season" and "Just Sky Harmony" by Philip Gully.

Toppliff gave the lesson on "From Acorn to Zucchini," on topics of food safety, food preservation, food preparation and more.

There were questions asked, including, "Do the seeds in hot peppers make them hot?" and "What are beef decks?"

Toppliff also gave the lesson, "Stretching Your Food Dollar," on the advantage of planning ahead and little things count.

Pamphlets were handed out on master mix recipes and ingredient substitutions.

The club will meet next on Feb. 5 at Lela Wilkinson's house.

Sunflower 4-H

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunflower 4-H Club was called to order by President Ryan Gausman on Monday at the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

Roll call: "Who do you think will win the Superbowl?" was answered by 22 members, eight parents and two leaders.

Ryan Irvin lead the group in a song called "Make New Friends."

The business meeting consisted of dates and times for the Model Meeting, Steer Weigh-in and 4-H Talent Night.

Alicia Studer gave a demonstration on "Stuffed Crust Snack Pizza." Ashley Cook also gave a demonstration on how to make an easy and delicious snack called "Puppy Chow." Kali Rietchek gave a project talk on cross-stitching. Ryan Irvin gave a project talk on rocketry. A current event was given by Kayler Rietchek on the volcano that erupted in the Congo.

Kerek Mason led the group in a fun game of "Who's Got My Shoe?!" Delicious refreshments were provided by the Rietchek and Hendrich families.

Redwood Club

Twelve members of the Redwood Club met in the home of Arlita Musil for the January meeting.

Phyllis Daniels gave an interesting lesson on "From Acorns to Zucchini" which covered the many questions asked of Karen Blakeslee, the director of the Kansas State University Extension Rapid Response Center.

Questions were about food safety, canning, pickling, human nutrition and nutrionomics.

Fun questionnaire asked questions, such as, how do you cook crow meat? are there male and female green peppers? what are beef decks? can you freeze homemade pie meringue? and do you have a question? Call the county extension office.

President Arlita held a short business meeting, bills were paid and correspondence was read. A get well card was signed for Ruth Morton.

The February meeting will be with Lavaughn Glasco and she will give a lesson on "Tea Time."

birthday

Ethel Denton Chestnut will be celebrating her 90th birthday on Thursday.

Her friends and family are invited to a reception in her honor at Ray's Restaurant from 1:30-3 p.m. Saturday.
