Many events make time fly in February

Another week's gone, leaving less than half of February left. I sure don't know where the time is fleeing to. Last week the church had their Shrove Tuesday pancake feed from 5-7 p.m. The attendance was very good, and, from all reports, it was a success. We then had Ash Wednesday services at 7 in the morning.

Thursday and Friday were spent working on the bulletins for Sunday. Several of the parish members helped Father Charles on a supper he put on for a couple.

I got to feeling ucky, so I didn't help finish the evening out. He told me Sunday that the event was a success. So, for a busy week, it all ended very well.

Ila, Lucille and I took in the Masonic pancake feed on Saturday. We used the pancakes for our noon meal. From all appearances, that event also looked like a success.

I didn't go to the center birthday party on Saturday as I had some work that I needed to get done. I started my house cleaning again, made some inroads, but have more to do. I also did some watering on my lawn. It is so dry that I figured with no heavenly moisture, I needed to get some water on it or it will be in terrible shape when the weather gets warmer. I even washed the mud off my car, using the lawn as the recipient of the water from the car wash.

Dorothy Fairbanks, Glenda Garrett, Sandy Filkens and Lucy Ackerman will have lunch at the country club on the 21st to celebrate the birthday of Sandy and Glenda's on the 25th. Happy birthday to these ladies.

My birthday calendar shows the 20th as the special day of Bud Perrey, Perry Warren and former resident Belle Montgomery. My report on Belle is that she is stable and doing as well as can be expected with her medical problems. Happy birthday to these and any others having a special day.

There's one anniversary, that of former residents Leon and Eunice Liljegen on the 17th. Anniversary wishes to them and others.

Spent some time with friends Lelia Sturrock and Eva Briney at Wheatridge. My visit extended to having the evening meal with them and the others at the center. I hadn't been there for a couple of weeks as I didn't want to spread any more germs there than were already in the building. Both said several of the residents had flu-like symptoms and had a few days of not feeling up to par. Let's hope this stuff gets a move on and leaves the citizens of Goodland alone.

We at the center weren't as lucky as others to have the 18th off. So I'm finishing this column Monday afternoon, following my usual load of towels and finishing up watering my back lawn. I'll then continue on with my house cleaning, yuck.

Sincere sympathy to the families of Dorothy Highland, Clara Franklin and Ruth Smith.

Several residents are in the hospital, both here and in Denver and Hays. Not wanting to miss anyone, I'll not use personal names but wish them the best of health and speedy recoveries to return home.

With no more notes or news, I'll sign off for now and get this ready for printing. Take care and see you all next week.

those with relatives with mental illness from 1:30-3:30 p.m. Sundays beginning Feb. 24. You must pre-register by Sunday by calling Marilyn at (785) 824-3408 or Carol at (785) 675-3129. The curriculum focuses on schizophrenia, bipolar disorder (manic depression), clinical depression, panic disorder and obsessive-compulsive disorder. The course discusses the treatment of these illnesses and teaches skills family members need to cope effectively.
