Columnist goes to Hays with a friend

Just a short column, for the week. Roger and I are going to Hays with LaVelle to see if LaVelle's blood pressure is down enough for him to have the surgery that was postponed in December. Roger and I will hopefully be back by Friday and then go down again after church on Sunday.

I want to thank all the special helpers that will be filling in for me at the Senior Center this week. Joyce Crabtree will be in charge, and she will be able to handle anything that might come up. What a blessing! There are several that are willing to lend a hand, and we appreciate each one. Hopefully this will be the last time for a while that we will be gone.

I know the Colby RSVP has been handing out commodities this week, but I will wait until the week of the 26th to hand them out. Sorry for the delay, but I didn't want anyone else to have to do the paperwork. Thank you for your patience.

Muriel Palmgren has returned to her home, after spending several weeks in Lantern Park, in Colby. We are happy that she is back home, and hope that she stays well. We had a nice chat with Lori Depe on Saturday afternoon. She looks very good, and seems to be improving daily. She was with her son, John Dierks, and they were enjoying an ice cream cone. Hard to believe that ice cream is a major treat in the middle of February, isn't it?

We are still seeing the remains of that terrible dirt/snow storm in our yard and on our windows. That dirt is not easy to get rid of, and I fear that there may be more on top of it before we are done.

I know LaVelle has a special "Thank you!" for Colleen Rail who will be doing his chores for a while. She also interviewed LaVelle for a project, and I can imagine he thoroughly enjoyed it. He likes to reminisce, so he makes a good subject for interviewing. He is quite happy that his son, Greg, will be coming up to Hays for a few days, also. Greg lives in Claremore, Okla., so it is quite a trip for him.

As I said earlier, this is a quick report but wanted you to know that if you have any news, just drop it off at the Center. I am certain I've forgotten some things, but I will get caught up in coming weeks. I want to congratulate the reporter that wrote the piece on Olive and Troy Dillinger. It was beautifully done, and several have commented on it. Good Job, Rachel! See you all later.

Senate says 'yes' to liquor at fair

TOPEKA (AP) — The Senate has approved a bill to allow liquor consumption on the Kansas State Fair grounds in Hutchinson.

Supporters said the bill make buildings on the fair grounds more attractive venues for receptions when the fair is not under way.

The fair board already has authority to allow the serving of cereal malt beverages, such as beer with 3.2 percent or less alcohol. The beer is sold and consumed only in beer gardens at the fair.

Current law permits liquor consumption only during wine-judging contests and pari-mutuel racing events.
