correction

In the Tuesday edition of The the back seat. Goodland Daily News it incorrectly stated that Pat Walters was buying things for his daughter's birthday when rect any mistake or misunderstanding a man hit his car. He was actually picking up his wife's coffee pot. The story also said his wife was driving when he believe that news should be fair and was actually driving and that the car factual. We want to keep an accurate door was open because it was hot, record and appreciate you calling to which he said was not the case. He said our attention any failure to live up to his daughter opened the door to get into this standard.
