

Brewster sees a flood of proud grandparents obituary

This seems to be a week of hot temperatures and blowing dust. And, so far, I haven't found anyone that seems to like it.

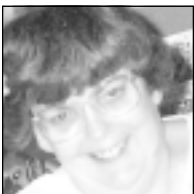

There seems to be a rash of new grandchildren, and we also have a proud uncle.

Tim Knox would like every one to know he has a new niece in St. Louis, Mo. Her parents are Stephanie (Knox) and Matthew Ford.

Her name is Amanda Marie, and she has a big sister, Melanie. Amanda weighed in at 7 pounds, 10 ounces. Her grandparents are Sharron and Phil Knox, Brewster, and Glorianna and Everett Ford, Concordia. Grandma Sharon was able to spend a few days in St. Louis last week with her granddaughters and their parents.

Another set of proud grandparents is Russell and Darylann Jorgensen. Their first grandchild, Cole Hudson Arroya, was born May 27th. His parents are Gina (Jorgensen) and Zef Arroya, of Racine, Wis.

Cole weighed in at 7 pounds, 10 ounces also. Great-grandparents are Alvin and Allie Helin of Brewster. I believe Darylann has left to spend a few days getting acquainted with her grandson, and Russell will be going up when he gets things organized for harvest. Congratulations to these new parents and grandparents at this happy time!

Sunday, May 26th, Marion and Coleen Crumrine enjoyed visiting with Dennis and Shirley Thummel of Brighton, Colorado.

Later, they were visited by Verl Crumrine and friend, Nadine, of Bird City, so Sunday was a busy day for the Crumrines.

Roger and I made a quick trip to Hays after church on the 26th. On the way to Hays, we joined several members from church at the Colonial Steakhouse in Oakley for lunch.

In Hays, we were joined at Beth and David Ziegler's home by Barry and have all but disappeared, and his weight is normal, maybe even a little above, and he is improving in all areas.

Kim and Barry, as well as Rebekah, have worked hard to achieve this, as well as the doctors and other specialists, and we know the Lord is helping them to know how to help Andrew.

So here's a thanks to all those that have helped us pray, and we hope you will continue to do so.

Betty Wolfe has again given us some material from The Brewster Tidings, in May of 1940. That year, there were 21 graduates from Brewster High School. The Baccalaureate was held at the Methodist Church with the Rev. Simpson's message being "Majestic Mariners."

The music was provided by the mixed chorus, the Senior girls sextet and a duet by Eileen Mayer and Gail Berry. Jane Hull was the Valedictorian and Marie Biggs was the Salutatorian.

May of 1940 graduation was celebrated by the second annual Class Night in conjunction with the Eighth Grade graduation. Each class had a part in the evening.

Coach Burns presented seven track awards to Baird, Berry, Barger, Wolf, Parsons, Abernathy and Horneg. The junior high basketball team won an award for placing first in a Bird City Tournament.

The junior high graduates of 1940 were Lloyd Allen, Edith Eicher, Lee Highland, Buddy Hull, Darlene Ryan, Leslie Brown, Darold Finley, Wynn Horney, Orval Parsons and Dean Strain.

For a Senior Trip, 19 seniors accompanied by Professor and Mrs. Lytle and Myron Cummings, and they went to the mountains of New Mexico. Sure are a lot of names that are still part of our daily lives.

The Memorial Day Program, on May 30, of that year began with the Brewster Band and the American Legion firing squad at the local cemetery sites, Brownville, Muldrow, Prairie Gem and Brewster.

Betty also shared about the Rebekah Lodge members of that year electing officers out of the 18 in attendance. Leota Crumrine, Zelda Mullendar, Inace Parker, Helen Melton and Florence Wilson were just a few of the member names of that organization.

Betty has had a request for information from a couple from Las Vegas, Nevada, about the Dean sisters that taught in the elementary grades from 1946-1952. It sounds like the two sisters are still doing well.

Now that school is out, and summer is giving us some hot days, how about meandering downtown and visiting the Library, Monday and Wednesday from 1-4 p.m., and on Saturday morning from 9-11 a.m.

And we also would welcome you into the Senior Center also from 10 a.m.-noon and 2-5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

That's it for this week, and we hope all of you have a very nice Father's Day, and I don't think any of us would care if a picnic or two would get rained out.

TOPEKA (AP) — Republican Phill Kline made his bid to be the next attorney general official Tuesday, filing the necessary paperwork with the secretary of state.

Kline, a conservative from Shawnee and former legislators, paid the $1,333 fee and joined Sen. David Adkins, a moderate from Leawood, in the Aug. 6 GOP primary. The filing deadline is June 10 for statewide offices.

Democrats have yet to field a candidate, though speculation has been that Geary County Attorney Chris Biggs

Practical joke leads to resignation

NEWTON (AP) — A practical joke that backfired — a faked arrest by a Harvey County Sheriff's deputy — led to the deputy's resignation.

Matt Stineman resigned Monday, saying he regretted embarrassing the department.

"I learn from my mistakes," he said. "I sure didn't mean for it to go this far. It's a practical joke gone bad."

Stineman was not charged in the incident, and the sheriff's department said it has no plans to seek the revocation of his law enforcement certification.

"He was allowed to resign," Det. Steve Bayless said. "We don't think this is an issue that in any way would affect his ability to be a law enforcement officer with any other agency."

Stineman, who had worked for the sheriff's department since January 1999 and was a road patrol deputy since June 2000, said he was playing a joke on a civilian passenger in his patrol vehicle.

The joke involved making a bogus arrest of a woman Stineman has known for several years.

But it led to a search for a man purportedly impersonating an officer after a relative of the woman reported the incident to a sheriff's department employee.
