Belated birthday and anniversary wishes extended

I really wasn't with it last week. I read the paper and saw I had failed to acknowledge birthdays and anniversaries.

So, belated greetings to those who have had one and greetings to current ones, among them, Richard Golden on the ninth, Roy Russell on the 14th, Reid Bowker on the 15th, Thurl Demaree on the 18th, Matt Mentzer on the 19th, Pat Perrey on the 20th, Gennifer House on the 21st and Jeanette Foust on the 23rd. Best wishes to one and all.

One birthday that I've kind of singled out was the 92nd one of Leila Sturrock on the 14th. Leila is the sister of Eva Briney, and both of these ladies live in Wheat Ridge.

While her immediate family is very small, her Briney relatives showed up for lunch with her at the center. I visited with her Sunday evening. Best wishes, Leila.

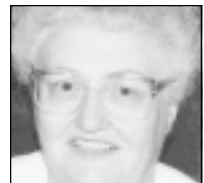

I just remembered another anniversary, that of Harold and Emma Van-Vleet on the 7th or 8th. It was number 47. Best wishes to this couple.

I helped to deliver meals on wheels that our church did for the first 15 days of the month on Saturday and Sunday. I sure hope when the time comes that I might need this service, it will still be in operation.

My last report was that Maynard Bane was still in the hospital in Burlington. I hope he get home soon.

I was also told Joyce Lyman is back in the hospital. That lady has had her share, really more than, since the first of the year. In the hospital in Denver, St. Francis, Colby, Hoxie and now here. The later three were actually in the nursing home and here in swing bed.

Get well wishes to these and any others having health problems. I hope each will soon have a good report.

Among the nicest things that the residents of Good Sam enjoy are the visits of their children. Helen Jones has had several of her kids come to see her.

June and Boyd Miller of Apple Valley were here for a few days. Another daughter, Fern Miller, and Matt of Broomfield, Colo., were here in late May and early June. Jean Warren of Colorado Springs and Dick and Joyce Jones of Parker, Colo., visited her around the Memorial Day weekend.

There was a lot of activity here and in Windsor, Colo., at Memorial time. I visited my graves, and Bob and I took care of all the graves, both mine and his family's.

I bumped into a few people I knew before we moved here. In fact, the last trip back, I saw several people I formerly knew, visited with them all and, as usual, was late getting to Martha and Bob's for lunch. I just can't seem to judge the time when I get to gabbing with former neighbors and friends.

I have had several comments on my last report about the canyon activities. You'd be surprised how many know of others in the canyon and were very curious if any of them were in the path of these fires. Not to my knowledge, at this point. One never knows when and if it will happen, but I'm praying that it doesn't.

Florence Farris has had a busy past few weeks visiting family and friends. This lady keeps on the go by attending local events, including Edson events, her former home.
