Diane Louise and William Allen Mannebach

Couple wed in June

Diane Louise Koch, the daughter of Robert and Mary Koch of Salina, and William Allen Mannebach, the son of Lena Mannebach of Hoxie and the late Joseph Mannebach, were married Saturday, June 22, at the Great Bend St. Patrick Catholic Church.

The bride and groom both used to live in Goodland, and she taught at West Elementary for about 20 years.

The Rev. Warren Stecklein officiated the double-ring ceremony. The bride, escorted by her parents, wore an ankle-length ivory lace chemise dress with a lace jacket. Her head was adorned with a white hat and she carried a bouquet of peach and cream roses.

Matron of honor was Nada Ingalsbe of St. George, sister of the bride. She wore a peach colored mid-calf length dress. Best man was Alfred Mannebach of Ellington, Conn., the brother of the groom.

Liturgists were Jim Koch and Bobby Koch, brothers of the bride, both of Salina and Kennan Ingalsbe of St. George, brother-in-law of the bride.

Ushers were Darryl Mannebach of Manhattan and Brent Mannebach of Oakley, sons of the groom, and Aaron Ingalsbe and Adam Ingalsbe, both of St. George, nephews of the bride.

Flower girls were Dayna Mannebach and Dawnelle Mannebach, both of Oakley, daughters of the groom. Ring bearers were Miles Koch and Barrett Koch, both of Salina, nephews of the bride. Taperlighter was Abby Koch of Salina, niece of the bride.

Music was provided by an organist, Connie Schneewis; St. Patrick's Handbell Choir; and a violist, Darcy Muir of Salina, niece of the bride. The guest book was attended by Janette Ingalsbe, of St. George, niece of the bride and Katie Mannebach, of Oakley, daughter of the groom.

The bride is a graduate of Salina Central High School, Academy of Hair Design of Salina and Kansas Wesleyan University in Salina. She is a special education teacher in Hoisington.

The groom is a graduate of Hoxie High School, Colby Community College and Fort Hays State University. He is employed as an advertising representative for the Great Bend Tribune.

The couple lives in Great Bend.

obituaries

Robert Uplinger

Robert Jaqua Uplinger Sr., 89, of Syracuse, N.Y., a former president of Lions International and an aviator who was born in St. Francis, died July 27, 2002, in Syracuse.

He was born Aug. 14, 1912, the son of James Edward and Magnolia Jaqua Uplinger. He married Martha Rath on Aug. 20, 1939, in Syracuse.

He graduated from the University of Kansas in 1934 with a degree in mechanical engineering. He was a pioneer aviator who received his pilot's license at age 18 and was inspired by watching Charles Lindbergh learn to fly in western Kansas.

He did barnstorming in Kansas, Colorado and Wyoming in the early 1930s and was an organizer of the Syracuse Civil Air Patrol. A licensed pilot for 63 years, he continued to fly his Stinson Voyager until 1993.

Following service during World War II, he returned to Syracuse where he founded R.J. Uplinger Inc., a distributor of power transmission equipment.

He was president of Lions International from 1971-72, pioneering the idea of helping the hearing and vision impaired. After serving as president, he became the non-governmental organization representative of the Lions to the United Nations, serving for 25 years.

He was a member of the First English Lutheran Church and the Syracuse Host Lions Club; a former district governor and international director for the Lions; a director and president of the Syracuse Association for the Blind, which later became Aurora; and a president of the Syracuse Aviation Commission.

He was a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity and the University of Kansas Alumni Association, a Mason, and a member of the Society of Sons of the American Revolution.

He was a co-founder and member of the Power Transmission Distributors' Association and a member of the OX5 Aviation Pioneers, named after the OX5 engine in early biplanes, and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Judge Karen M. Uplinger of Syracuse; a son, Lt. Col. Robert J. (Julie) Uplinger Jr. (U.S. Army ret.) of Great Bend; three grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a step-great-grandchild.

Services were at 1 p.m. Central Time Thursday, Aug. 1, 2002, at the Peace Lutheran Church, St. Francis. Burial was in St. Francis Cemetery with a Masonic graveside service. Knodel Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Lions members may make memorial contributions to their local Lions charities. Others may make memorials to the church or charity of their choice.

Martha Lucas

Martha M. Lucas, 93, formerly of Goodland, a retired state social worker, died Wednesday, July 31, 2002, at the Terrace Garden Center in Garden City.

She was born July 17, 1909, in Lincoln, Neb., the daughter of Stanley and Nell June (Ochiltree) Matthews.

She married Robert Muir Lucas on July 17, 1935, at Salina. He preceded her in death on Jan. 7, 1982, in Goodland, and she continued to live in Goodland until moving to Garden City in 1997.

She was a member of the Goodland Presbyterian Church, Sugar Hills Country Club, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority and several bridge clubs.

Survivors include two daughters, Roberta Huddleston of Garden City and June Passarelli of Las Vegas, Nev., six grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

Services will be at 4 p.m. Central Time Sunday, Aug. 4, 2002, at Price and Sons Funeral Home in Garden City with the Rev. Dave Sweley officiating.

Visitation will be from noon-8 p.m. Saturday and from noon until service time Sunday at the funeral home. A private family burial will take place later.

Memorials may be given to the Emmaus House in care of the funeral home, 620 N. Main, Garden City, Kan. 67846.
