Nikolas Wilets and Felicia Haynes

Couple wed in Georgia

Felicia Haynes, daughter of Publisher Steve Haynes, and Nikolas Wilets of Augusta, Ga., were married at 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 30, at the Partridge Inn in Augusta.

The double-ring civil ceremony was officiated by Magistrate Judge John Baxter.

The bride wore a floor-length ivory silk sheath gown made for her in Hong Kong. Her single strand of antique pearls had belonged to her grandmother, the late Barbara Haynes. She wore a simple crepe shawl with pearl fringe and trim and made and carried a bouquet of purple, blue and white irises tied with a lace ribbon.

The bridegroom wore a dark wool suit, black vest and white shirt made for him in Hong Kong, paired with Kenneth Cole dress shoes and a Donna Karan tie from his mother.

The fathers of the couple carried the rings.

The ceremony took place on the rooftop verandah of the venerable hotel atop a hill in old Augusta.

Attending the ceremony were the parents of the couple, Steve and Cynthia Haynes, Oberlin, and Dr. Greg and Julie Wilets, Greenwood Village, Colo.; the bridegroom's paternal grandparents, Dr. Art and Shirley Wilets of Bethesda, Md.; and the bride's maternal grandmother, Emma Desilet, Concordia; the brother and sister of the bride, Lacy and Lindsay Haynes, Lawrence; and the sister of the bridegroom, Kelly Wilets, Miami.

After the ceremony, the wedding party adjourned to the penthouse suite for a supper of beef with mushroom bordelaise sauce and chicken roulade, with key lime pie and chocolate mousse for dessert.

The table was decorated with a bouquet of mixed seasonal cut flowers, a gift of the couple's coworkers, and white candles in hurricane lamps.

On Saturday, about 50 friends of the newlyweds gathered at their home for a casual Labor Day cookout and wedding party.

The couple will spend two weeks in Italy on their honeymoon, which they are delaying until late November.

The bride is a 1992 graduate of Monte Vista High School in Monte Vista, Colo., and received a degree in journalism from the University of Colorado in 1996.

She is senior editor for the content team of Morris Digital Works, the Internet division of Morris Communications in Augusta.

The bridegroom graduated from the Hyde School in Bath, Maine, in 1987 and Metro State College in Denver in 1995 with a degree in political science with a minor in photojournalism. He is a senior designer for the content team of Morris Digital Works.

RESOLUTION 02-15

A RESOLUTION EXPRESSING THE PROPERTY TAXATION OF THE BOARD OF SHERMAN COUNTY COMMISSIONERS WITH RESPECT TO FINANCING THE 2003 ANNUAL BUDGET FOR SHERMAN COUNTY.

Whereas, K.S.A. 79-2925b provides that a resolution be adopted if property taxes levied to finance the 2003 Sherman County budget exceed the amount levied to finance the 2002 Sherman County budget, except with regard to revenue produced and attributable to the taxation of 1) new improvements to real property; 2) increased personal property valuation, other than increased valuation of oil and gas leaseholds and mobile homes; and 3) property which has changed in use during the past year, or with regard to revenue produced for the purpose of repaying the principal of and interest upon bonded indebtedness, temporary notes, or non-fund warrants; and

Whereas, budgeting, taxing and service level decisions for all county services are the responsibility of the board of county commissioners; and

Whereas, Sherman County provides the essential services to protect the health, safety, and well being of the citizens of the county; and

Whereas, the cost of provision of these services continues to increase; and

Whereas, the 2002 Kansas State Legislature failed to fulfill its obligations in regard to the statutory funding of demand transfers and, by significantly limiting state revenue sharing payments to counties, has contributed to higher county property tax levies to finance the 2003 Sherman County budget.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Sherman County Commissioners that it is our desire to notify the public of the possibility of increased property taxes to finance the 2003 Sherman County budget due to the above mentioned constraints, and that all persons are invited and encouraged to attend the budget meeting conducted by the Board of Sherman County Commissioners. The date and time of the hearing will be published in the Goodland Daily News.

Adopted this 17th day of September, 2002, by the Board of Sherman County Commissioners.
